INDIANS FEAR WORK.

MILES CITY (Mont.) Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Cheyenne Indians at the Lane Deer agency, near here, are very indignant over the order of the Interior Department in shutting off their rations with a view of making them work and earn their own living. A number of them came to Miles City and held a conference with attorneys, during which a strong protest was drawn up. This will be taken to Washington by a delegation of Indians. The Indians assert that much of the land allotted to them for farming will not produce sufficient crops to keep them from starving.

GOOD SAMARITAN'S REWARD. MARILLON (O.) Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By the terms of the will of J. W. Woodridge, a wealthy farmer, died here today, $25,000 is bequeathed to H. C. Thorne of Clinton, Iowa. Thorne befriended Woodridge when the latter made a trip out West in a prairie schooner twenty years ago. Woodridge was an eccentric and "crazy" man, but his will was made valid by a judge of the county court at Clinton, Iowa, and he was awarded the sum of $25,000.

DENIES WEDDING.

Mrs. Yerkes Says "Ridiculous."

Wilson Mizner and the Rev. Andrew Gillies Say Marriage Took Place.

Bride of San Franciscan Much Older and Wealthier Than the Groom.

Son of Ex-Minister to Mexico and Guatemala Has a Record.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Report that the former Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, widow of the Chicago traction capitalist, is now the wife of Wilson Mizner of San Francisco, was confirmed tonight by Rev. Andrew Gillies of No. 129 West Seventy-sixth street, pastor of St. Andrew's Methodist Episcopal Church, who said he had performed the ceremony making them husband and wife in Mrs. Yerkes's home, No. 864 Fifth avenue, a few minutes after 8 o'clock Tuesday night. Mizner also authorized the statement tonight, that he had wedded Mrs. Yerkes, and his brother, Addison Mizner, an art dealer and collector, also confirmed the report. Further verification was given by Joseph L. Eastland, who said he was one of the witnesses. Other witnesses were Mr. Brugere and Mrs. Katharine Goodsell, who lives in the Hotel Lafayette-Brevort, and who has for several years been a close friend of Mrs. Yerkes.

SHE WON'T HAVE IT. In spite of these statements by the minister, the bridegroom and witnesses, Mrs. Yerkes herself maintained up to a late hour tonight that she had not been married to Mr. Mizner. Anybody else, and declared in the reports to the contrary, she would have no motive for contradicting the report, if it were true, and declared she expected to devote the rest of her life to carrying out her husband's plans in connection with the establishment of a hospital in the Bronx. She says, "It's ridiculous."

Mrs. Yerkes-Mizner is old enough to be her husband's mother, for she is 50, and he is 29 years old. However, she is yet rather fine looking and youthful in appearance. When she was in Chicago a few days ago, in connection with the probating of her late husband's will disposing of $15,000,000, she expressed herself as immeasurably shocked that any person would as much as dare suppose that she had any intention of rushing into a marriage with Mizner or any one else. A few days prior to that, about the time of Yerkes's funeral in New York, she is reported to have said that she loved Mr. Yerkes and mourned his death, adding that she wished she had him back.

"NEVER MARRY AGAIN." "I shall never marry again," she said to an interviewer in Chicago. "The memory of my dead husband fills my thoughts that no one else can ever take his place. He was the one man in the world for me. He always was; he always will be."

It was said by a well-known Chicago lawyer that Mrs. Yerkes-Mizner may wish to have absolute disposal of more property than the $200,000 left her by the late traction magnate, and the income from the half of the estate set aside for her use. She may do this, it was pointed out, without contesting the will and without litigation, merely by renouncing her claims under the will and taking, instead, her share under the law.

WIDOW'S DOWER RIGHTS. "Under the law," said this lawyer, "the widow's dower rights consist of one-third of the personal property outright and a life interest in one-third of the estate. The majority of the Yerkes estate, probably about $10,000,000, is in personal property—bonds, stocks and other negotiable securities. She may also claim homestead rights in the mansion in New York City. Under her dower rights, Mrs. Mizner would have something to leave to her husband, or children, if she should have any, or to any one else to whom she wishes. If she does not think this would be a better arrangement for her, it is a safe wager that her husband will be able to show her that it is."

The marriage did not come as a great surprise to those who were in touch with Mrs. Yerkes's plans. According to statements made today by those in charge of the Yerkes home at No. 2201 Michigan avenue, Mizner was a constant visitor there while Mrs. Yerkes was in Chicago. Sunday, January 21, Mrs. Yerkes left for New York, and on that date Mizner left also for the East, vacating his room at the Auditorium Annex January 20. Before leaving her Michigan-avenue home, she informed the servants in PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Anna Brown Martin, daughter of the Burgess of Bellevue, Pa., was married this afternoon to Archibald J. Holman of Allegheny, a grandson of the Duke of Richmond. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Lee Anna Starr, aunt of the bride, who is a regularly-ordained minister of the Methodist Church.

The ceremony was a quiet one at the home of the bride. She wore a locket, the gift of the Duke of Richmond to the groom. The latter is a prominent church worker, and has been captain of the Allegheny Corps of the Epworth Guards.

"ROCKY" FOUND IN THE HILLS.

DISCOVERY MADE FOLLOWING SUPREME COURT OPINION.

Oil Trust Magnate Has a Guest Who Is Said to Be His Father, of Whom Little Has Been Known for Many Years—John D. Jr., Holds Bible Class Reception.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John D. Rockefeller is at Boxwood, his home in the Pocantico Hills, and has a guest who, it is understood, is his father, William Rockefeller. John D. Rockefeller has been reported in the South and in the various winter resorts, but it was learned positively, tonight, at a reception to the Bible class of his son, that he was at Boxwood.

Little has been known of the father of John D. Rockefeller for many years. He has been reported as living on a ranch in North Dakota with one of his sons, Frank Rockefeller, and also as living on a ranch in South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., gave a reception, tonight, to the young men's Bible class in the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church. There were about two hundred young men and women present. Rockefeller, assisted by Mrs. R. P. Johnston, wife of the pastor of the church, and Mrs. Foot, wife of Dr. Foot, vice-president of the class, received the guests and shook hands with them. Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., sat in the balcony during the entertainment, chatting with Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Sr.

MORMONS AMONG ZIONISTS.

WAUKESHA (Ill.) Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] News from Winthrop Harbor states two Mormon elders are now located there, and are making daily trips among the residents of Zion and surrounding territory, distributing Mormon literature. Their coming here, right after the visit of President Smith, makes it appear that the Mormons hope to make converts among the members of Zion, in view of the recent disruptions among Zion's people.

FRENCH KILL MOORISH RAIDERS.

ALGIER, Jan. 29.—A band of seventy-five Moorish raiders who had captured 1000 camels were surprised by a party of French guards at Quedouly, south of Mied. A fierce fight followed, in which twelve of the raiders were killed. The camels were captured.

CHICAGO "SHY" OF BABIES.

Only One Birth in Eight Years in Fashionable Lake Shore Drive.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although five babies are born every hour in Chicago, one every twelve minutes, Lake Shore Drive, the home of the millionaires and fashionables, has had only one birth in eight years, according to the records. Honore Palmer and his wife, formerly a Baltimore belle, have the honor of breaking the monotony.

In striking contrast to this long stretch of magnificent dwellings and no children, is the Ghetto district, where the stork alights five, and sometimes twenty times an hour.

At the Bureau of Vital Statistics, it is estimated that only 60 per cent. of the births in Chicago are recorded. The number recorded last year was 26,122. In 1904, the number was 27,908, and the previous year more than 29,000. This does not tally with the facts which show a rapidly increasing birth rate, especially in the congested and poorer districts. Physicians say the figures for last year would be near 45,000, if all births had been recorded.

SHOT ON STREET.

Horrible Crime in San Francisco.

Maddened by Jealousy and Drink, W. S. Walbridge Kills Former Wife.

Bystander Receives Bullet in Mouth and Another Man One in the Foot.

In Shadow of Lotta's Fountain, Murderer Blows Out His Brains.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As the dinner-hour crowds streamed past Lotta's fountain at 6 o'clock tonight they were startled by revolver shots that were started by a man, who, it is understood, was maddened by jealousy and drink. The man, who was identified as William S. Walbridge, a former wife, Mrs. Belle Robbins, wound two passers-by and then blew out his own brains.

It was a tragedy swiftly accomplished. Above the clamor of the city's busiest corner, at its busiest hour, four revolver shots crashed out with no appreciable interval. Before even those nearest at hand could prevent him, the murderer was a suicide—a crumpled bloody heap on the pavement, and the woman, shot through and through the body, lay gasping out her life.

After Walbridge, crazed by jealousy and alcohol, poured the deadly volleys of three shots into the woman's neck, on the left side, and before he stepped into the shadow of the fountain and ended his own life, Mrs. Robbins stood screaming: "Oh, my God, I am shot! He has shot me!"

BYSTANDERS WOUNDED.

Two bystanders, George B. Stangenberg and William T. Pearl also suffered from the fire of the murderer. Stangenberg was wounded in the foot and Pearl received a bullet in the mouth, knocking out a couple of teeth, which fell down his throat. He coughed up the bullet, which was somewhat flattened by contact with his teeth, and turned it over to the officers.

At the morgue, Walbridge's clothes were found to contain bankbooks and letters which told the motive of the crime. They were all concerning his former wife, most of them being either letters addressed to her or notes which she had written.

UNHAPPY MARRIAGES.

Mrs. Walbridge came from Santa Cruz. Her maiden name was Heath, and she lived with her parents in Soquel Canyon. The family lived near a shingle mill, and Walbridge, who was a mill-hand, paid court to her and married her about twelve years ago. They frequently quarreled, and separated from each other a number of times, he claiming she was too free with other men and she declaring that he was cruel. They had four children, but have been separated for seven years, she having obtained the divorce.

Walbridge wanted his wife to come back to live with him in San Francisco, and threatened to kill her if she refused. After their separation, Belle Walbridge, or, as she called herself, Mrs. Heath, worked at Ocean Villa, a summer hotel at Santa Cruz. She had married a man named Robbins of Oakland, but separated from him. It is said that her brother Benjamin is postmaster of Hanford.

The operators declared in this caucus to "stand pat." F. L. Robbins of Pittsburgh, leader of the operators, said: "I stand positively and determinedly against any advance whatever. There is nothing to warrant it."

With this declaration and an assurance by the operators of the Southwestern District that they would stand by the operators of the Central Competitive District, the caucus adjourned.

COMPLICATIONS CONFUSE KAISER.

DOES NOT KNOW WHAT POLICY IN MOROCCO IS BEST.

England's Determination to Support France, Even to Point of War, Development Not Counted Upon by German Emperor—No Progress at Algiers Toward Reconciliation.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the best informed politicians here says: "Unless the German Emperor absolutely insists on war, trouble is not likely to result from that Algerian conference."

"Great danger lies in the high-strung condition of the Kaiser, who really does not know what policy to follow, in view of the complications brought about by his sensational Morocco policy."

"England, usually extremely shy about pursuing a determined policy, has on this occasion made up her mind to support France, even to the point of war."

TAX QUESTION SETTLED.

ALGER, (Spain) Jan. 31.—The committee of the Moroccan conference which is examining the question of taxation has completed its work, preparatory to the submission of its report to the conference tomorrow. The committee proposes to leave the question of international impost largely to the members of the diplomatic corps residing at Tangier, who will formulate suggestions for the guidance of the Sultan.

KING READY FOR BURIAL.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 31.—The body of King Christian was today placed in a plain casket lined with swansdown and covered with black silk. It lies tonight in the apartment of the Amalienborg Palace known as the Garden Room, to which it was removed after a memorial service this afternoon.

Only the court physicians were present when the body was removed from the bed to the casket following the service at which most of the members of the royal family were present.

Great banks of flowers and wreaths line the hall, which is guarded by the King's adjutants. No official announcement regarding the date of the funeral has yet been given out.

It is stated that King Christian left only a small fortune, amounting probably to less than $250,000. The King was exceedingly charitable and gave large sums of money for the relief of the poor and to deserving institutions.

King Frederick has issued a decree of amnesty releasing many offenders.

FIRE ON THE MEADE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Transport Meade took fire at her dock tonight. Twenty men have been overcome and the fire at this hour (1:50 a. m.) is still burning. Large quantities of powder are on board.

The fire raged in the hold of the ammunition-laden transport Meade, lying at Folsom-street wharf, at midnight. Heroic attempts were made by brave firemen to descend into the smoke-choked pit, but without avail. Those who succeeded in getting down into the bowels of the burning vessel were brought out limp and apparently lifeless by their companions, and one after another hastened to various receiving hospitals of the city. Several were seriously affected, and one, Third Officer Wallace of the Meade, will probably die.

SHOT BY GERMAN SOLDIER.

Dr. Donaldson Murdered in Street of Swakamand, South Africa—Rid-died While Down.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Herbert Simpson, wife of the real-estate agent of the Wabash Railroad at Pittsburgh learned today that her brother, Dr. Anson Donaldson of Brookville, Ont., had been murdered by German troops at Swakamand, Southwest Africa. According to the story, Dr. Donaldson was walking peacefully in the streets when a soldier fired at him, and while he was lying wounded on the ground another soldier riddled his body with bullets.

Dr. Donaldson was about 33 years old and unmarried. His family is prominent in Canada. He entered McGill University in Montreal, and when troops were raised in Canada to take part in the Boer war he was appointed assistant surgeon in the Strathcona Horse.

H'E'S THE CHEF FOR WEDDING. MAJ. CHARLES L. MCRAWLEY IN CHARGE AT WHITE HOUSE.

His Heart-to-Heart Conference With the Providers of Good Cheer at State Dinners Stamp Him as a Connoisseur Ripe for Miss Alice's Special Function.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Most people in Washington know Maj. Charles L. McRawley, U.S.M.C., to be the director of all social functions at the White House, but few have learned that he is also decorator for the White House cuisine—that, on the special occasion of Miss Alice's wedding, he will take under his care the selection of the dishes and the wines which will go to make the menu of the wedding breakfast.

Maj. McRawley's tall, soldierly figure has been prominent at every reception, public or private, which has been held in the Executive Mansion in several years, and although Col. Bromwell of the Engineer Corps of the army is the official aide to the President and Maj. McRawley's ranking officer, it is generally known that Col. Bromwell is too busy as the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds to give his personal attention to White House occasions of a fashionable nature.

But Maj. McRawley's usefulness to the President does not cease at this point. In the instance of a state dinner, he has wrestled with the problem of the menu, and the result this winter especially shows him to be an excellent judge. In fact, a gastronomic connoisseur. Consequently, when the problem of the wedding breakfast arose, it was by unanimous consent turned over to Maj. McRawley to solve, and Miss Alice, Representative Longworth and Mrs. Roosevelt have the utmost confidence in the outcome.

F. L. PROCTOR MOVED.

EL PASO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] F. L. Proctor, father-in-law of Col. W. C. Greene, the Canadian copper magnate, who was stricken with paralysis on the San Rafael ranch, in Sonora, has recovered slightly, and has been taken into Cananea.

MAY VISIT LIAOTUNG. Americans Permitted to Investigate Their Property Near Port Arthur.

TOKIO, Feb. 1.—(Noon.) A permit for Americans to visit the Liaotung Peninsula and investigate the condition of their properties, abandoned at the outbreak of the Russo-Japanese war, was officially granted today.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—The Russian Charge d'Affaires at Tokio reports that, in consequence of the stringent Japanese regulations, foreigners must have special permits to visit Port Arthur and then only for the specific idea of removing their property.

CONDITIONS GREW WORSE.

"As soon as control of the road passed to the United States," said Schwernin, "the conditions described began to grow worse. The railroad company cut the wages of men who worked on the docks, which caused a strike. As a result, we are both paying higher wages than we were before, for the poorest labor in the world. It became the understanding that the United States had bought the railroad to build the canal, and cared nothing for the commercial business across the isthmus. Commercial business was neglected, and it was said by Secretary Taft, Mr. Wallace, Admiral Walker, the former chairman of the commission, and others connected with the building of the canal that

PANAMA'S DIRE FOE.

Tehuantepec Route Shorter Cut.

Robert P. Schwernin Predicts Destruction of Railroad and Steamer Traffic.

Pacific Mail Official Believes Bulk of Freight is Not to Be There.

Tells Senate Committee That Taft Spoke in Malice or Ignorance.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That total destruction of the commercial business of the Panama Railroad, as well as the practical destruction of the business of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts will follow the opening of the Tehuantepec Railroad in June is the opinion of Robert P. Schwernin, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Mail, as expressed to the Senate Canal Investigating Committee today.

The Tehuantepec route, being closer to American ports than the isthmus and cutting the time from approximately 34 days to 26 days, will, so Schwernin thinks, obtain the bulk of the freight now carried between Atlantic and Pacific ports by the ships of the Panama Railroad, the railroad itself and the ships of the Pacific Mail Company.

Schwernin was questioned closely concerning the effect of this competition, members of the committee expressing the opinion that if the facts are as he thinks, the government's plan for increasing the facilities of the Panama Railroad to meet the needs both of canal building and of commercial business may be materially affected.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Schwernin while before the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals today had his attention called to a statement made by Secretary Taft criticizing the service between Panama and San Francisco for its part in contributing to the congestion of freight at Panama. In reply he said: "Secretary Taft's statement was made either through malice, or through ignorance of the causes of the difficulties of which he has complained."

Continuing, he said that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company operates nine regular steamers on the Pacific Coast, which steamers sail on schedules approved by Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua and other countries whose ports are entered. The schedules provide for connection with the steamers of the Panama Steamship Company from New York by means of the railroad across the isthmus. The schedules require the companies to make connections and exchange freight, said Schwernin.

A description of the conditions on the isthmus since the Canal Commission took charge of the Panama Railroad, was given by Schwernin. He said that freight had accumulated on the wharves, all commercial shipments having been held up by the movement of canal materials, and the difficulty, Schwernin asserted, was due to "culpable negligence on the part of the managing officials of the Panama Railroad and utter indifference to their obligations as a common carrier."

He explained this to some extent by the statement that the equipment of the railroad had deteriorated greatly during the two years prior to the sale of the property to the United States.

CONDITIONS GREW WORSE. "As soon as control of the road passed to the United States," said Schwernin, "the conditions described began to grow worse. The railroad company cut the wages of men who worked on the docks, which caused a strike. As a result, we are both paying higher wages than we were before, for the poorest labor in the world. It became the understanding that the United States had bought the railroad to build the canal, and cared nothing for the commercial business across the isthmus. Commercial business was neglected, and it was said by Secretary Taft, Mr. Wallace, Admiral Walker, the former chairman of the commission, and others connected with the building of the canal that commerce was secondary to the movement of canal material.

"It was that indifference that brought about the congestion. It is shown just the same in shipments by steamer from New York. A steamship may be loaded with commercial business, and a rush order received for canal material. The commercial business would be removed, and canal material substituted, but we would be notified of the shipment of the business desired for western ports and receive papers for the business. The result is that we would receive bills of lading and manifests for goods that would not be found, and our ships would be delayed for days. We found it impossible to segregate the shipments for particular loadings, all of which was due to the inefficiency of the officers of the Panama Railroad Company."

BILLS FOR DEMURRAGE. Scherwin said lumber shipments from New York were held up so long that there were bills for demurrage amounting to $18,617 between August 1st and November 30, 1905, and the Panama Railroad will have these bills paid. He said that the Pacific Mail Steamships were held at Panama for long periods and that there was no way this company can enforce demurrage. He charged that the railroad company had further delayed the Pacific Mail Steamships Company's ships by refusing to turn them with coal, as they are required to do under a contract, and that no complaint was made to Superintendent Humphrey of the railroad company, and he said the fault laid with higher officials. Scherwin said he had resorted to every means to bring about improved conditions, even making a protest to the State Department. Scherwin complained also that the Panama Railroad had arbitrarily reduced rates from New York to ports on the Pacific Coast, where the haul was divided between the Panama Steamship Company and the Pacific Mail. He said he was informed that the reduction was a concession to the Steel Trust, which had proposed to Admiral Walker, the former chairman of the Canal Commission, that the rates were cheaper from Europe to Central America than from New York to the same ports. Secretary Taft had then taken the matter up, said Scherwin, and authorized a reduction of the rates.

In the absence of a contract, he added, the rate could not be lowered except by mutual consent and the adjustment of the rates is still pending. DENIES MONOPOLY. It was denied by Scherwin that his company had a monopoly on the Pacific Coast, and he declared that there had been no monopoly in the business between San Francisco and Panama. He complained of the criticisms of the company made by Secretary Taft, and said as a result the company had been held up to ridicule. He asserted that the statement of Stevens that the freight congestion was the fault of the Pacific Mail Steamship company showed that Stevens was a railroad man, and confessed steamship methods with railroad methods, where, as a matter of fact, they are totally different.

Sherwin asked Scherwin if he had not started a little under the criticism of Secretary Taft, and if that feeling had not cropped out in his testimony. Scherwin replied he had thought it too bad to be held up to ridicule and disgrace by a high official of the United States, and every effort had been made to uphold the American flag in a business that had almost been driven off the seas.

He denied to Senator Morgan that the Pacific Mail has any connections with a transcontinental railroad, and declared that Secretary Taft's statement that his company had put small steamers on the isthmian trade in order to divert the better steamers to the coffee trade was absolutely false. He said that sailings had been missed because the Panama Railroad had held up the ships at the isthmus.

He added: "It may be they are not making the dirt fly there as rapidly as they want, but I am not going to let them make the fur of the Pacific Mail without giving to the public an understanding of the way business is being done."

Sherwin made the statement that the Tehuantepec Railroad across Central America will be completed by June 1, and declared "that will kill the American commerce which now crosses the isthmus."

He said that it "would put the Panama Railroad and the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Panama line out of business, as by the new line there would be a reduction in the time from San Francisco to New York from 34 to 25 days."

HIGH MASON ACQUITTED. Jury Exonerates Banker Schaus on the Charge of Receiving Money Unlawfully.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEWARK (N. J.) Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Louis P. Schaus, Grand Master of the Ohio Masonic Lodge, was acquitted in court today, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The suit grew out of the failure of the Newark Savings Bank, of which Schaus was president. It was alleged that Schaus knew the insolvent condition of the bank, but received deposits and allowed them to be received until the bank was forced to suspend.

In connection with this failure, ex-Cashier James F. Lininger, his wife, Mary J. Lininger, and their son, Robert C. Lininger, are all under indictment for forgery. This afternoon attorneys for father and son filed affidavits that, on account of prejudicial facts against them, worked up by the newspapers, they could not get a fair trial in Licking county, and asked for a change of venue.

PROF. STARR IN PIOMY LAND. CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Prof. Frederick Starr, the Chicago University anthropologist, who set out for Central Africa last September to study the pygmies, has entered the jungles of the Dark Continent and begun his marches. Yesterday, a letter was received from him by Robert F. Hall, a student. It was dated December 12 and was mailed December 12 at Leopoldville, 1200 miles inland from the east coast. Prof. Starr intended to spend a year in the study of the pygmies and other tribes.

APPEAL TO PRESIDENT.

Seattle Wants Government to Probe Wreck.

More Startling Testimony Regarding Valencia.

Tule Life "Preservers" Weigh Over Sixty Pounds.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SEATTLE (Wash.) Jan. 31.—Seattle Chamber of Commerce today adopted a resolution calling on President Roosevelt to order a government inquiry into the wreck of the Valencia. The resolution was sent by wire to the President.

SEATTLE (Wash.) Jan. 31.—More startling testimony in regard to the life preservers was brought out during the investigation into the Valencia disaster this morning, when Frank Richley, the mess boy of the vessel, testified that he went into the life boat with nothing but a trust himself as a life preserver.

"I never cared for those life preservers," he said, "and thought I would stand a better chance swimming. Richley accordingly jumped into the boat and after that boat had been captured by a big wave he managed to climb onto it and make his way ashore. Richley stated that when he arrived on the shore he found some of the others who had gone off in the boat, among whom was Frank F. Bunker.

The inspectors next turned their attention to ascertaining why those who had come ashore with Richley did not make their way up to the cliff where the life preservers were. Richley replied that he suggested they do so. At this time, the men were standing on the beach where they had first landed.

Richley then suggested that the men go to the top of the hill. He stated that he could have reached the top where the life lay, but was physically unable to do so, owing to his ankle, which he says he hurt while making his way ashore.

Richley denied that he had made statements to a newspaper correspondent that the officers of the vessel were "rattled." He also denied making statements to the effect that he would back Bunker up regarding the life preservers. Richley said:

BATTLED IN THE DARK. "I heard Capt. Johnson tell the officers to prepare to lower the boats. I was stationed at No. 2 boat, at the starboard side. I went to the forward part of the boat, to search for life preservers. I could not distinguish people two feet away. Soon somebody let go mine, which he says he hurt while making his way ashore.

Richley denied that he had made statements to a newspaper correspondent that the officers of the vessel were "rattled." He also denied making statements to the effect that he would back Bunker up regarding the life preservers. Richley said:

RECOVER THREE BODIES. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) VICTORIA (B. C.) Jan. 31.—The tug Lorne landed ten men at the wreck of the Valencia this morning and recovered three bodies, those of William Sibley, Jr., and two children. The United States torpedo-boat destroyer Perry took three bodies to Seattle, among the islands of the Middle Channel in Barclay Sound.

All bodies found at the scene of the wreck of the Valencia will be brought to Victoria, instructions having been given this afternoon to the police officers in charge of the party. When the tug Lorne permitted no corpse to be taken direct to Seattle, as had been done heretofore. The cutter Grant took three bodies to Seattle, and the tug Bahadur, which called at Victoria to report, took another identified body to Seattle.

One more body was found yesterday by the patrolling parties searching the shore line in the vicinity of the wreck. It having been picked up by John near Puchena and placed on board the tug Bahadur, which left Bamfield for Seattle this morning. All that was found on the body was a piece of envelope with the address No. 4194 South Main street, Los Angeles, and a Pacific Coast Steamship Company's badge check No. 713. Search for others is being continued.

CROWS AFTER BODIES. Two landings were made near where Linamen had eight bodies recovered by his party temporarily buried in the sand to protect them from the crows, near Darling Creek. The tug Wyandott crew ashore in a dory, but the heavy sea made it impossible for the crows to be recovered. The bodies and it has now been decided to buy these men at a place on the beach near Darling River above high water mark.

The tug Lorne arrived at Bamfield about 5 p.m. last night and landed an undertaker, a carpenter and others to make coffins. A party of three special officers who will organize parties to prevent any possible looting were also landed.

Numerous inquiries are still being received by the Vancouver information office of the victims of the disaster. A Hoelst of San Francisco, who lost a brother whose body was found by Linamen, went to Bamfield by the ferry to secure his brother's body, and Mr. Peters of Seattle, who with Mr. Peters, had been searching for Miss Van Wyck's body, also returned to the scene of the wreck.

TRIAL RESCUE SUCCESS. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—In order to test the efficiency of the life saving service on the bay ferriesboat an evening paper today arranged to have J. Scott Leary, an expert swimmer, jump from the lower deck of the steamer Garden City in midstream. He did so, a life preserver was thrown to him, a boat was lowered and in seven minutes he was again on board the vessel. He says the work of rescue was skillful and prompt, though at no time was he in any danger. The ferryboat was delayed nine minutes on its trip.

ALIVE AND WELL. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) SAN JOSE, Jan. 30.—Louis Grippe, whose body is reported to have been recovered from the wreck of the Valencia, is alive and well at this time. The corpse found, as described in the Victoria dispatch, is probably that of Joseph Delaney of Seattle, who prior to his departure on the Valencia, was visiting friends in Grays Harbor. He is known to have been one of the latter's cards in his possession.

FILLED WITH TULE WEEDS. TACOMA (Wash.) Jan. 31.—Frank Jackson of Seattle, a passenger on the steamer Multnomah, from Olympia to Tacoma today, ripped eight tons of life preservers open on a vessel.

found them filled with tule weeds and threw them overboard. He was arrested.

TAKE VALENCIA'S PLACE. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—The steamer City of Topeka will be placed on the regular Coast run of the City of Topeka, in whose stead the Valencia went on her last round voyage. The City of Topeka will remain on this run indefinitely.

"I asked them to at least make room for the women, who were standing about. I hoped Mrs. Campbell, who was the first woman to get into the boat. Her little girl cried and asked to go with her mother. I grabbed her and threw her into the boat. I saw no men get out to make room for the women.

"Then some one yelled 'lower away.' I yelled to First Officer Holme that there were too many people in the boat. I could not see any one, but the answer came back: 'Lower away, that boat; what the— is the matter with you?'"

Richley, in telling of the launching of No. 6 boat, which he did not know there was any officer in charge. When asked by the inspectors if he did not know the second mate was with the boat, he replied that he did not. "I thought there was nobody in command, so I told them to get her out to sea."

Boat No. 5 was either dropped into the sea through a mistake in orders or the ropes were rotten. The boat contained forty people. As it hung from the davits, battens, and the sides of the ship with every sea, one end gave way and practically all the people in it were spilled into the water. Only three or four were kept afloat until the boat was finally launched.

DEPEW IS OUT OF THE BOARD. Henry Rogers Winthrop Becomes a Director of the Insurance Company in His Place—Mutual Life Postpones Action on "Claims" Against Individuals.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Senator Chauncey M. Depew has resigned the Board of Directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. His resignation was accepted today, and he was succeeded by Henry Rogers Winthrop, who for some time has been financial manager and assistant secretary of the society. The health of the junior Senator from New York has been noticeably less alarming since the prearranged welcome given him in the Senate on his return to Washington recently.

Depew will not miss the Equitable Board a vast deal. He is a member of numerous others—not many less than one hundred. The question is: "Will the board miss him?"

MUTUAL LIFE'S "CLAIMS." (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Company today postponed action upon a recommendation of their special investigating committee which the trustees described as "relating to certain claims against individuals." The legal question as to those claims, the trustees announced, were submitted to Joseph Choate, and the Board of Trustees decided "to act in accordance with the opinion and views of Mr. Choate as regards any further action."

Other recommendations made by the special committee were adopted, but none made public.

Frederick Cromwell, the treasurer of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, tendered his resignation, to take effect March 1 next, and the resignation was accepted. Cromwell was temporarily president of the company for a time after Richard A. McCurdy's resignation.

REGISTRY COMPANIES BARRED. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) Jan. 31.—Notice was issued today by Superintendent of Insurance Vandiver that after today no identification or registry company or agency thereof will be allowed to write accident insurance for any accident company licensed to do business in Missouri. Superintendent Vandiver contends that the law does not allow accident companies to place insurance through these registry or identification companies.

SUIT AGAINST HYDE STARTED. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—President Paul Morton of the Equitable Life Assurance Society today filed suit against James H. Hyde for the recovery of approximately $75,000, representing Hyde's profits in syndicates which sold securities to the society. Morton also announced that suits were in preparation against various men who had profited by leases of the spaces in buildings owned by the Equitable, the so-called "subsidiary companies," and that these and other claims of the society growing out of the acts of the old Equitable administration were being pushed as rapidly as possible.

INSURANCE CONVENTION. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—The national convention of the Insurance Companies, called under the direction of President Roosevelt, began today, with representatives from all parts of the country in attendance. Today's session was devoted to the election of delegates and to the appointment of a committee to consider the suggestions which have been submitted to Temporary Chairman T. C. Drake, Insurance Commissioner of the State of Illinois, and the accredited representative of the President. The committee considering the suggestions made to Drake is expected to report tomorrow.

GOV. CALHOUN'S RESTING PLACE. SANTA FE (N. M.) Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The body of John G. Calhoun, first vice-president of the Missouri Historical Society, says that the body of James G. Calhoun, first civil governor of New Mexico, is in a pauper's grave at Kansas City. Dr. Calhoun was Governor in 1851 and 1852. He died in 1882. The body was sent to Kansas City. When the body reached Kansas City it was badly decomposed, and the steamerboat company refused to receive it for further transportation. It was buried in the cholera cemetery, Shelley Park, the bodies were transferred to the potter's field.

FUTURE MAN AS A CREATOR.

Prof. William Ostwald Holds a Startling Theory.

Practically No Limit to Development of Life.

Dr. John D. Quackenbush is Hypnotizing Death.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—A dispatch to the Inter-Ocean from New York says that man, through his scientific advancement, may develop into a creator himself, is the opinion of Prof. Wilhelm Ostwald of the University of Leipzig, expressed in a lecture at Columbia University, last night, on the results of the attempt to create life through chemical processes.

Prof. Ostwald has given careful attention to the experiments of Prof. Jacques Loeb of the University of California, and announces with confidence his belief that by slow development science may even create a type of life as high as that of our domestic animals. The steps will be slow; one form of life will be produced after another, and eventually the professor expects something almost as man to be the physical form of life.

"There is practically no limit to what man can do in this direction," he said. "Of course, first he will be able to produce only a piece of protoplasm, something like the water hydra or the amoeba. But as he goes on, he will be instinct with real life, and will be a step in the new evolution. This evolution can only result in the creation of something the equal of our higher animals, but what it will be who shall say."

"It seems to me that the scientist who does this will be able to determine the physical form of life, and after the development has started, and he will have created a new order of life, for this being will multiply indefinitely, the same as all our modern animals."

"I cannot say whether this creation of man will be crustacean, amphibian, mammalian, or whether biped, quadruped, fish, fowl or reptile. I can only say that after careful study of what has been accomplished, I am overwhelmed at the inevitable probabilities. Who knows but a new order of humanity may be created?"

PULLING DEATH'S STING. SNATCHING GRAVES' VICTIM. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—That with the moment of death the quality of suggestion on the mind is at its maximum and that through hypnotic suggestion patients given up by physicians may be brought back to life, is the latest discovery of Dr. John D. Quackenbush, as announced at a "metaphysical evening" held by the Entertainment Club last night. Dr. Quackenbush cited an instance where, he said, he saved the life of a patient who had been given up by the physicians.

"I said," he said, "I was the same as a death sentence—temperature 107.9, pulse 160, respiration 30—and the attending physician said, 'He is drawn from the case, as beyond the pale of hope.'"

He stood by the woman's bedside and said: "You cannot die; you cannot die; you have work to do on earth. Do not dare to say it is too late. As a physician, I am not a physician, but a metaphysical condition, and get well."

"Gradually the mental mist cleared away," said Dr. Quackenbush. "The patient's strength returned, and today the girl is perfectly well."

"In two other cases," continued the doctor, "moribund patients, one a judge of prominence, were recalled from death by shouting in the ear at the moment of dissolution a command to return to life. The method would further avail in many cases of drowning, of shock, poisoning by gases and narcotic drugs, and are literally on the threshold of discovery. Citizens are destined in the century before us to demonstrate immortality on reputable scientific grounds by establishing the facts and the laws of telepathy and clairvoyance."

Dr. Robert M. Taft spoke of performing operations without the use of an anesthetic by means of hypnotic suggestion.

STANDARD OIL RUNS AT LARGE.

H. H. ROGERS NEED NOT REPLY TO HADLEY'S QUESTIONS.

Justice Gilderleeve of the New York Supreme Court Holds That the Missouri Tribunal Should Decide the Question Raised by the Attorney-General of That State.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—A decision that Henry H. Rogers, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, shall not be compelled to answer questions which he recently refused to answer in the taking of testimony here in the case of the State of Missouri against the Standard Oil Company, was handed down today by Justice Gilderleeve in the Supreme Court.

The application to compel Rogers to answer the questions was made by Attorney-General Hadley of Missouri. The companies affected in this case are the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, and the Republic Oil Company. The State of Missouri seeks to oust them from doing business in Missouri. The application was denied for the reason that, in Justice Gilderleeve's opinion, the court of original jurisdiction in Missouri should determine the question raised by Hadley. Leave to renew this application was granted to the latter.

In his decision, Justice Gilderleeve said: "The principal questions to which the witness refused to answer relate to the ownership of the stock of the respondent corporations. Disregard for the court of original jurisdiction demands that this court should await the decision of the Missouri court. Missouri, and not at this time should the propriety of compelling the witness who refuses to answer any question relating to the ownership of the stock of the respondent corporations."

In denying Attorney-General Hadley's application, Justice Gilderleeve declared that this action is taken without prejudice to a future application of the same nature.

HADLEY STILL CHEERFUL. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Atty.-Gen. Hadley does not consider that the decision of Justice Gilderleeve is a serious blow to the case for the State of Missouri. As he views it, the New York court is holding the matter in abeyance, pending a decision by the Missouri Supreme Court.

Justice Gilderleeve's decision, said Hadley, simply postpones the final determination as to whether Mr. Rogers will be compelled to answer the questions. He said the Supreme court of Missouri has decided a question now before it.

Halle G. Rhodes against Justice Edwin J. Rhodes. Ryan, who set up most of the heating stoves in the South side suburb, told of the gossip of various women of the neighborhood concerning Attorney Proper and Mr. Rhodes. He whispered startling testimony in the ear of Judge Mack, which he declared he would not dare speak in front of all the ladies. It concerned the characterization of Proper by one of the leading women of Chicago.

SHE KNOCKS "COLD FEET." According to a woman who has written to Supt. of Schools Cooley, the universal cause of all human ills is "cold feet." She believes she possesses a sure cure for the evil, and asks permission to conduct a test of her remedy with school children or adults and under the direction of the superintendent. The new healer, whose name Mr. Cooley refuses to divulge, says the remedy is composed of "two parts of disinfectant and one part of stomach bitters," and should be used internally.

ROBBERS MAKE CLERKS KNEEL. Two robbers, each carrying two revolvers, early tonight entered the Empire Loan Bank, No. 144 North Clark street, made two clerks kneel behind one of the counters, and after taking the money from the cash drawers, packed diamond rings, watches and other jewelry into a small valise. They locked the door as they left. The robbery was an unusually daring one.

DRUNKEN FARMER'S DOINGS. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PLAINFIELD (Wis.) Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Clayton Brown, a farmer, while drunk, burned his barn and contents, then went into his house and drew a butcher knife on his mother, threatening to kill her. He then set fire to the house, which was partially saved. Clayton was captured, and is in jail.

DOOMING "THE WEED." (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) COLUMBUS (O.) Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) If the State Supreme Court holds that cigars and pipes are substitutes for cigarettes, the smoking of tobacco in any form will result in arrest. The McFadden Anti-Cigarette Bill passed by the House yesterday forbids owning or keeping "cigarettes, cigarette papers or wrappers or substitutes thereof."

EUREKA, Jan. 31.—"My friends convention offers me the nomination, I shall consider it my duty to accept."

Such was the response made today by Congressman J. N. Gillett in answer to a query sent to Washington for the purpose of ascertaining how he viewed the campaign for Governor started in his behalf.
It has been contended that Congressman Gillett had not been consulted in the matter. Mr. Gillett's reply has placed the situation in a different light.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

EAGLE CITY (Alaska) Jan. 31.—
Capt. Arold Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer who discovered the Northwest Passage, will start next Saturday to his ship, the Gjøa, on his return trip to Herschel Island. He will be accompanied as far as Fort Yukon by mail carriers of the Northern Commercial Company and at this point he will be joined by his Eskimo guides.
Capt. Amundsen has a splendid outfit of dogs. He is in good spirits and has received many letters, books and papers from Norway, as well as letters from each of the crew of the Gjøa from Christiana.
The captain, on his journey to Herschel Island, will carry much mail for

RAILROADS TAKE HIS TIME.

COL. HEUER TO HAVE ASSISTANT

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

in charge of the rivers and harbors of Northern California, will soon have an assistant in the person of Capt. Chas.
H. McKinstry, United States Corps of Engineers, who will take charge of the works for the defense of San Francisco Bay.
Since the railroad war has broken out on the other side of the bay, Col.
Heuer has discovered that his office force is too small to keep tab on the railroads and at the same time devote the time necessary for the many other matters placed under his supervision.

gations. Though all arrangements were not completed tonight, it is thought the funeral will be about sixty in number of the Knights of Pythias.
The remains were received at Carson

INSANE CRIMINALS' PRISON.

SITE AT FOLSOM CHOSEN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The directors of the State Commission in Lunacy have agreed upon a site at Folsom for the erection of an asylum for insane criminals. It will be upon the cliff just above the prison wall, and the necessary work will be begun at once.
Three years ago, the Legislature made an appropriation of $25,000 for this purpose and the last Legislature increased this appropriation by $15,000 to provide for sewerage. At the time, there were some difficulties to have such an institution inside the prison, nor that it should be under their management, but these matters have now been settled. There are at the present time about sixty insane criminals in the general State institutions, as well as in the prisons, and a special establishment has therefore been very much needed.

W. J. Calhoun, the President's special commissioner, charged with the investigation of the merits of the claim of the New York and Bermuda Asphalt Company against Venezuela, as believed that Calhoun has succeeded in collecting the material necessary to enable the State Department to arrive at a correct conception of the facts upon which it can now proceed to act diplomatically with the Venezuelan government.

Clark and Smoot Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Some significance is attached to the change made today in the membership of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections. Senator Clark of Arkansas has never attended any meetings of the committee, nor was it known how he stood in regard to the Smoot case, pending before the committee. It is known, however, that the substitution of Senator Clark for Senator Clark is satisfactory to those who have been opposing Senator Smoot.
It is also known that Senator Clark has been identified with the committee assignments given him, and has announced that he would refuse to serve on the committee. Senator Clark retires from the committee, and Senator Patterson takes his place.

ger of the two rival associations successfully accomplished, the national convention of stockmen resumed its sessions today prepared to open a vigorous campaign to secure Federal leg-and for development of foreign trade.

NEW DIRECT LINE.

ST. PAUL TO FRISCO.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Railroad men here today received details of the proposed direct route from St. Paul to San Francisco.
The new line is intended to connect St. Paul with San Francisco, and will be a great enhancement in value by the new line.
Railroad men here say the chief source of revenue of the new road will be the distribution of lumber from California mills to the Middle West, which is now the work of eastern roads and their connections. It is also believed the new road will tap great oil territory hitherto unexplored because it was so remote from transportation.

The persistent effect upon the heart of caffeine in coffee cannot be result in the gravest conditions, in time.
Each attack of the drug (and that means each cup of coffee) weakens the organ a little more, and the end is almost a matter of mathematical demonstration.
A lady writes from a Western state:
"I am of German descent and it was natural that I should learn at a very early age to drink coffee. Until I was 23 years old I drank scarcely anything else at my meals."
"A few years ago I began to be affected by a steadily increasing nervousness, which eventually developed into a distressing heart trouble that made me very weak and miserable. Then, some three years ago, was added asthma in its worst form. My sufferings from these things can be better imagined than described."
"During all this time my husband realized more fully than I did that coffee was injurious to me and made every effort to make me stop."
"Finally it was decided a few months ago, to quit the use of coffee absolutely, and to adopt Postum Food Coffee as our hot table drink. I had but little idea that it would help me, but consented to try it to please my husband. I prepared it very carefully, exactly according to directions, and was delighted with its delicious flavor and refreshing qualities."
"Just so soon as the poison from the coffee had time to get out of my system
the nutritive properties of the Postum began to build me up, and I am now fully recovered from all my nervousness, heart trouble and asthma. I gladly acknowledge that now, for the first time in years, I enjoy perfect health, and that I owe it all to Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
There's a reason. Read the little book,
"The Road to Wellville" in packages.
Postum Food Coffee contains no drugs of any description whatever.

MOORE READS AWAY.

OLD RECORDS AND AFFIDAVITS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—The second day of the railroad case ended with Attorney A. A. Moore of the Southern Pacific still offering more testimony. Standing at the high desk before Judge Morrow, Moore read hour after hour transcript after transcript, and record after record. Toward the end of the session he was relieved by his son Stanley, and from old records they passed to affidavits, but without any distinct gain in interest.
The demand of Col. Heuer that the injunction be amended so as to permit the continuance of the government dredging was acceded to. At the request of the Southern Pacific, the court modified the restraining order so the American Dredging Company can be permitted to dredge and deposit its spoils on the disputed ground without the express stipulation that such deposits shall be without prejudice or advantage to the right of any of the parties.

The Times January circulation statement shows the daily average circulation to be above the 50,000 mark, an average daily gain exceeding 8000 copies over January, 1905. This marvelous circulation growth is not equalled by any other two Los Angeles newspapers.

As will be noted by the detailed figures, 67,500 copies were printed on the last Sunday in January, and every copy was disposed of before evening of the publication day. This is the largest regular Sunday run ever made by The Times, and it taxed the mechanical equipment of the office to the utmost.

4994 columns and 4 inches of paid matter in The Times for January are the actual figures, and the record is greater than in any previous month in the life of this journal—and greater, in fact, than can be exhibited by any other newspaper in North America as far as can be ascertained. It is an average of nearly 161 columns per day, and nearly reaches the aggregate volume printed by all the other five daily newspapers of Los Angeles for the month of January. Last year's January record was 3920 columns.

The gain for the first month of 1906 over last year is thus shown to be 1070 columns, or an average of more than 34 columns per day.

Race War Again Breaks Out Beyond Caucasus.

Elections to National Assembly Cause Commotion.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The House was very flat today. Baron Mendelssohn's declaration that there will be no loan from Germany has had a depressing effect. The Ministers are considering an issue of the third internal 5 per cent lottery loan.

A race war has again broken out in the region between Elizabethopol and Shusha, where the Armenians and Tartars are massacring each other. These horrors are added to by the fact that the population of the region is starving and that typhoid is raging. It is impossible to send food or medical assistance.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—The government is finding ample justification for its severe policy against the revolutionists in the constant discovery of bombs, bomb factories and depots of arms and munitions in all parts of the empire, which are now so commonplace that such matters scarcely claim individual mention in the newspapers.

The Novoe Vremya today, however, prints half a column of statistics of the revolutionists in the constant discovery of bombs, bomb factories and depots of arms and munitions in all parts of the empire, which are now so commonplace that such matters scarcely claim individual mention in the newspapers.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 31.—The assassination of Gen. Griaznov, who was killed by the explosion of a bomb thrown at him January 29 by a man disguised as a painter, has brought to a head the discontent among the faction of the military revolutionists with disfavor the policy of the Viceroy of the Caucasus, Count Von Verchagin-Dashkoff, in the war between the Tartars and the Armenians. The two races, it is said, will appeal directly to St. Petersburg for the removal of the Viceroy, who is actively supported by high officials of the Viceroyalty.

It is established that the murderer of Gen. Griaznov, who has not recovered consciousness from the terrible beating received from the soldiers who arrested him, is a student of the University of Kutas, named Djyashvili, a member of the fighting organization of the revolutionists. He was selected to carry out the sentence of death imposed on Griaznov in retaliation for the latter's ruthless repression of the revolutionists in Kutas and the policy proclaimed by Gen. Alkhonoff, who was dispatched there to "pacify" the province. Alkhonoff has spared neither life nor property in the war he is waging against the revolutionists. He has reopened the railroad to the Black Sea, which had been in the hands of the revolutionists, and for the first time for months the entire Caucasian line is in operation.

FIRST CLASSEN PLEASED.

Prospective Adjournment of Court-martial at Annapolis Will Allow Them to Graduate.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 31.—The proceedings of yesterday in the case of Midshipman George H. Melvin were approved.

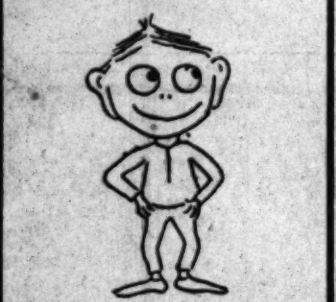

On the conclusion of the trial of Midshipman Desautelle, the court took up the case of Midshipman William T. Boyd, Jr., of Peoria, Ill., a member of the second class. Midshipman Boyd chose to exercise the right of defending himself in propria persona.

It was announced that when the trial of Midshipman Boyd had been finished, the court-martial will adjourn for two weeks to avoid interference with the examinations, which began today. The prospective adjournment of the court-martial is particularly pleasing to the members of the first class, as it will insure the fact that all of them who have not been tried so far will graduate, even if they subsequently have to face charges.

PHOTOGRAPHED MARS'S CANALS. BOSTON, Jan. 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Photographs of the canals on the planet Mars, the first ever taken, are on exhibition at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. They are the work of Carl Otto Lampland, one of Prof. Percival Lowell's assistants at the latter's observatory at Flagstaff, Ariz. Accomplishment of the feat, which culminated last May at Flagstaff, is held by astronomers to mark a distinct epoch in the study of Mars, as it does beyond a doubt what has hitherto been known only on the testimony of very expert observers.

I want to tell you about a kid chum of mine that's got a job as office boy over on Broadway. He's certainly a peach and he is going to be a member of the firm some day sure. The first day he was on the job he saw the old man bending over a table looking at the directory. He saw right away that something was wrong and he didn't want to attract the stenographer's attention, so he slipped up further and poked a note into the hands of the boss. SETTLEMENT ON MINZER.

Chicago society never received Mrs. Yerkes, as they held her responsible for the separation of Yerkes and his first wife. It is said that before the marriage, Mrs. Yerkes settled the income from $1,000,000 on Minzer. As there is no stipulation in the will against remarriage, Mrs. Yerkes will now demand her dower rights in the estate, instead of accepting the amount given in the will.

MINZER'S RECORD.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Minzer in the youngest son of Lansing B. Minzer, former Minister to Mexico and Guatemala. He is 29 years of age, and has been identified with mining on the Coast. With his brothers, Dr. Wilson G. and Addison Minzer, he is very well known among children and in the "bachelorhood" of San Francisco.

He is a famous athlete, and went to Nome during the gold excitement. An adventuresome became infatuated with him, and followed him here and to several eastern cities. He had several ugly scenes in public places with the woman, but finally succeeded in inducing her to stop camping on his trail.

"NOTHING TO SAY."

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Charles E. Yerkes, son of the late Charles T. Yerkes, could not be found after the reported confirmation of the marriage of Mrs. Yerkes had been received, but his wife said: "Well, if that is true, I have nothing to say—nothing whatever."

Louis Ousley, financial agent for Mrs. Yerkes, who declared this morning that he knew nothing about the matter, said, after being informed that the marriage apparently had been confirmed, that he knew nothing about it. I did not believe the story when I heard it first. That is all I can say."

LATE STATEMENTS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Rev. Gillies said tonight:

"I was called upon at my home, yesterday afternoon by a man who said he was Wilson Minzer. He came to me like a man, and said he was about to be married. He asked me to be in Mrs. Yerkes' home last night, at 7:30 o'clock, to perform the ceremony, and I promised to be there."

"Why he came to me I do not know, and I did not ask him. It was enough for me that there was a man who said he was Wilson Minzer. I went to Mrs. Yerkes' home as agreed, and about 5 o'clock Mr. Minzer and his friends arrived. Mrs. Goodsell was already there. The only witnesses of the ceremony were Mr. Brugere, M. Eastland and Mrs. Goodsell."

"As to the filing of the certificate of marriage, I shall certainly attend to that within the ten days prescribed by law, and in view of the publicity of

DEATH OF ROBERT MORRIS.

DENVER (Colo.) Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Robert Morris, who came to Denver several years ago on account of ill-health, is dead as a result of an attack of pneumonia. He was a native of Charleston, W. Va., and only son of Gouverneur Morris, a civil and mining engineer of that city.

Two of his ancestors signed the Declaration of Independence, Robert Morris, the financier of the Revolution, and George Walton, first Governor of Georgia. Morris was 32 years of age, and unmarried. He lived with his mother here, and was a member of several patriotic societies. The body will be cremated and the ashes taken East.

Mrs. Yerkes, when seen for the second time just before midnight practically reiterated what she had said earlier, and when told of the statement by Dr. Gillies she exclaimed: "Ridiculous. I do not believe he said such a thing. Even if I did marry Mr. Minzer, it would be nobody's business, but my own. But I am still Mrs. Yerkes."

BRIDGE FOR MRS. PALMER.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Mrs. Potter Palmer sails for Europe, Saturday, she will take with her Mrs. Eleanor Bingham of Bellevue Place, a charming widow, whose struggles in rearing up her little family of three have been long appreciated by the fashionable people of the North Shore. Mrs. Bingham, on her side, is to teach Mrs. Palmer to play bridge, and it is said that during many hours of each day on the voyage over Mrs. Bingham will instruct the society leader so faithfully that at the end of the trip she will be quite competent to hold her own at that game with King Edward and the titled devotees who have scant patience with a poor player.

SHOT DOWN IN HIS OWN OFFICE.

DELIBERATE ATTEMPT TO MURDER REAL ESTATE DEALER.

George K. Gwartney the Victim of an Unprovoked Attack by J. H. Meenach, His Former Business Partner—Only the Thickness of Plate Glass Window Prevented Cold-Blooded Murder.

George K. Gwartney, a real estate dealer, with offices in Mercantile Place, was the target for a fusillade of shots fired by J. H. Meenach, his former partner, yesterday morning. The shooting was without provocation and was a deliberate attempt to commit murder.

Probably Gwartney owes his life to the thickness of the plate-glass window in the store front, as the would-be murderer, after firing three bullets, one of which shattered the middle finger of Gwartney's right hand, shot through the glass and the lead flattened against the real estate man's skull.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwartney are the proprietors of a rooming-house at No. 422 West Seventh street. Meenach rents an office in the front of the building and has the privilege of using the gas for lighting purposes only. It is claimed by Mrs. Gwartney that Meenach abused his contract and used the gas for heating the room and ran up a heavy bill which the rooming-house proprietors had to pay each month.

Early yesterday morning, while Meenach was burning his gas heating apparatus full blaze, Mrs. Gwartney went to the meter and turned off the supply. In anger Meenach ran to the bell and rang for the landlady. When Mrs. Gwartney opened the door she says he called her a liar, added that her husband was a thief and a swindler and ended by saying, "I'll fix him for this."

Mrs. Gwartney says she slammed the door in the man's face and sent her son, Byron, down to the real estate office to warn his father. The lad arrived shortly before Meenach.

Crazed with anger Meenach burst into the office and said, "You turned off, and if you don't fix it quick I'll fix you. You owe me $1.50."

Gwartney is said to have told Meenach he knew nothing about the gas. This seemed to further aggravate the excited man, who whipped out a .38-caliber pistol and blazed away. The first bullet shattered Gwartney's middle finger of the right hand, the second shot fired went wild.

Grabbing a chair Gwartney struck wildly at the man with the gun, and Meenach retreated to the sidewalk, he continued firing.

Another bullet, fired through the thick plate-glass window, went wild. The fourth struck Gwartney in the forehead over the right eye. The man sank back in his office chair, and it is said was shot at again.

Meenach was captured immediately and turned over to the police. He is now in jail. Gwartney is at the Good Samaritan Hospital, resting comfortably, and will in a short time be able to leave his bed. He has lost the use of his fingers will have to be amputated.

The would-be murderer resides at No. 645 South Hill street. He has a wife and three children. He is known to many as Prof. Meenach and is aged 39 years. He has made frequent boasts that he has killed two men and yesterday, after his arrest he admitted that he had killed a man years ago in West Virginia. He was sentenced to prison for a year and a half for the murder of a man named Adams. His examination was set for February 5, and his bond fixed at $2500. He was unable to give bond and was remanded to jail.

The Gwartney family came to Los Angeles a few months ago from Corydon, Ind., where for years Mr. Gwartney was a newspaper publisher. He was a decided factor in the politics of that State and he is widely known throughout the Middle West. With his family he spent the winter of 1904-05 in this city and decided to make his home here. He returned to Indiana, he disposed of his extensive property interests and upon his return here, invested in Los Angeles real estate. His reputation among those who know him is excellent.

AROUSAL AGAINST CRIME.
CHICAGO CITIZENS MAKE PLANS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—The depth of the people's feelings and purposes regarding crime in Chicago was responsible for two stirring anti-crime meetings yesterday.

At a meeting of the Anti-Crime League the sentiment was unanimous for $1000 saloon licenses—a measure which will at once provide funds for the employment of more policemen and reduce the number of bar-rooms.

At a session of the Law and Order League, Rev. John Norris Hall, pastor of Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church and leader in anti-crime agitation since the Huller murder, presented an account of the pursuit of a woman member of his congregation by a degenerate youth. The incident occurred in the afternoon and illustrated the prevailing conditions which have wrought up public sentiment to a pitch not before known.

It was announced by the State's Attorney that, beginning today, eight judges would sit in the Criminal Court and endeavor to clear up the calendar, which includes the cases of ninety men and women charged with murder and attempted homicide.

SAWTELLE SEES "PORKER" RAID.

DEPUTY FLEMING AND CONSTABLES TAKE MANY.

Inhabitants of the Hamlet Near the Soldiers' Home Stand Around in Open-Eyed Amusement as Officers Corral Six Men and Four Women on Boozes and Other Charges.

The customary placidity of Sawtelle residents was rudely disturbed yesterday afternoon when Deputy Dist. Atty. Fleming and Constables Adams and De la Monte descended on the proprietors of six alleged "blind pigs" and arrested in addition the feminine keepers of four alleged houses of ill repute. The inhabitants of Sawtelle, when they hanker for excitement, usually board a car and visit Los Angeles. Yesterday they were treated to their first taste of bawdy and bawdy in many a year. Everything was conducted with a surprising degree of good-natured complaisance, however, and the six men spent last night in the County Jail.

The women, fortunate creatures, discovered $50 cash each and were released temporarily from custody. Their lodging is still on tap. The officers had only just arrived in town when the word went the rounds that a raid was in progress. Men, women and children came from every direction to watch the progress of the invaders, and at one time, when Constable Jack Adams stood guard over a booze emporium, the opportunity of a life time was presented to him. Surrounded by a crowd of men, and protesting their friendship for the unfortunate victim whose place was being raided, the friends already noted begged for admittance.

"It's ten cents a throw," responded the constable, and the manner in which he was bombarded with ten-cent pieces proved something of a minor temptation.

There was nothing doing, however, and the raids went on as planned by Attorney Fleming.

The places of J. F. Brown, Roy O'Neal, Abner Ellis, H. H. Bolster, F. Van Delden and Thomas Carriero were raided. In each place a quantity of liquor was found, and as the tip was passed along, some difficulty was experienced in effecting an entrance into the dives last visited. C. Langdon was encountered in the act of emerging from the place run by H. H. Bolster and was stopped at the point of a gun.

MAYOR QUILTS LIBRARY MUSS.

Incensed at Lawyer's Words at Investigation.

Executive Says Marshutz Sought Board Place.

Miss Jones is Promised Hearing This Evening.

The Mayor "got mad" and went home in the middle of the library investigation last night. While being cross-examined by Oscar Lawler, a nasty wrangle occurred between the lawyers. Lawler, accusing Clarence Miller of trying to conceal the Mayor's part in the library fracas, the Mayor suddenly shoved back his chair with a force "g-p-r-r-r," and left the room—and the whole library mess, forever. Washed his hands of it.

"This has got to be a farce," he cried angrily. "I am sorry that I brought an honorable attorney here to be insulted. Good night. I shall not come back again. I am through with this whole thing."

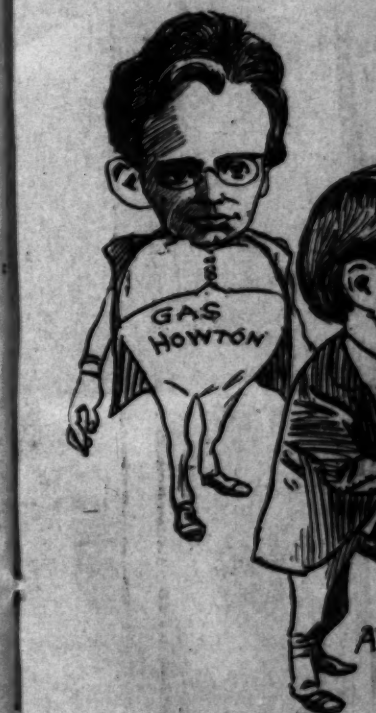

With that he marched out of the crowded room with Attorney Miller. The first night of the library investigation was a farce comedy. Last night it was a one-act circus and a very silly one.

The whole fracas was an attempt to make a monkey of the Mayor—in fact, a piliory and let his political enemies throw things at him.

Miss Jones, who has waited months for an opportunity to be heard, was not allowed to testify. Neither she nor her attorneys were heard.

Mr. Harris frequently begged and pleaded with the Councilmen to allow Miss Jones to be heard, but they waved him away.

WANTED MAYOR'S REASONS.
Chairman Smith stated in honeyed words that they didn't want to hear from Miss Jones until Mayor McAleer gave his reasons for "firing" the library board.

THE BUSY TRIO IN THE L.

Clarence Miller appeared for the Mayor. He stated that Mayor McAleer would answer any question of fact, but would not tell his reasons.

Finally Mr. Harris leaped to his feet, white, almost trembling. He demanded to know if Miss Jones was ever to be heard or not.

"I have already spent more time than she can ever pay for," Chairman Smith (starting up savagely) "See here, I don't propose to sit here and be bulldozed by you, or anybody else."

Harris: I shall not allow this woman to go down in a political quarrel.

Smith: Well, don't be in a hurry. Harris: In God's name, do you call this a hurry. She has waited all these months.

Doc Howton (quivering for a chance to butt in): You are out of order as you are hurting your client's case.

Harris was furious and said he was no more so big that he would criticize him, whether it hurt his case or not.

Spook Howton constituted himself prosecutor in the case, and tried to ask the Mayor some question, which the Mayor's lawyer usually parried, Mr. Aleer sitting in silence.

"Well, the Mayor doesn't have to tell the truth, does he?" queried the attorney. This petty picking and nagging went on until at last the Mayor suddenly whirled around in his chair and said he would answer the questions.

LAWLER INSINUATES.
But at the very first one Oscar Lawler said, with an insinuating emphasis that the Mayor ought to be sworn to tell the truth.

McAleer colored angrily. Councilman Hammond moved the swearing dispensed with "as a recognition of dignity of the Mayor's position."

(Alley) Dignity of office out of date.

Whatever philosophical remark he tended to accompany this was no more made.

Mr. Harris got up and angrily called attention to the fact that Oscar Lawler was bending over Councilman K. and they were whispering together.

"Whatever is said in the jury room to be said aloud," he said.

Lawler (sarcastically): Thank you for that insinuation.

Doc Howton (reproachfully): Yes, awfully bad form, Mr. Lawler.

It developed that the Councilman invited; they had begged him to together and do something.

At this stage, Attorney Frank T. as summoned as a witness, became disgusted with the wrangle, and departed.

The Mayor, under the questioning of Howton, testified that he only had "Miss Jones once before her discharge and knew nothing of the conduct of the library board."

He had criticized Miss Jones to Dr. Truworthy and others for action in coming to his office and trying to have one of her friends appointed to the library board. He said would not say that she was trying to do politics.

The Mayor said he never had a favor of dismissing Miss Jones.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.Charcoal effectually cleans and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels;
it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some cases a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."THE POLICY OF THIS

ing to have one of her friends appointed to the Library Board. He said he favor of dismissing Miss Jones.MARSHUTZ SOUGHT PLACE.

He said he had heard numerous com-plaints from leading citizens, and had appointed Director Marshutz at the latter's solicitation, to act as his special agent on the board and report to him the real facts going on. He said a citizen reported to him afterward that Marshutz was a client and neighbor of Director Dockweiler.So, when Marshutz went with the others, instead of reporting things to the Mayor, Mr. McAleer called him in and gave him an opportunity to resign with honor instead of being "fired" with the rest, telling him that he had the wool pulled over his eyes. Marshutz declined to resign.He didn't look with favor on being cross-examined."I tell you, I don't propose to be battled around from pillar to post," he said, uneasily, as Oscar Lawler leveled his legal glare upon him."I think you are trying to humiliate the Mayor for political reasons and none other," he said at one of the first questions. "I don't propose to be made a stool-pigeon for the Council, to serve their personal political ends."

This hurt Doc Howton's dignity.

"You must treat this Council with dignity," he said.The Mayor: And you must treat the Mayor the same.Doc: We will stand for some factiousness, but this is not called for the purpose of allowing you to stand as a martyr.The Mayor (good naturedly) All right; go ahead with your questions;
I'll answer them.HOW MAYOR WAS MISLED.
The Councilman insisted on an answer to the question as to how Mc-Aleer claimed that the library board had misled him. After a long series of verbal fencing matches, he said it was because they made him believe that Miss Jones had been threatening to resign and would leave the library in the lurch unless some new librarian was had.He said he had heard that Miss Jones had ordered typewriters for the library, paying $15 more for them than she might have got them for by advertising.Director Marshutz bobbed up and said he wanted to testify."It's his word against mine," said the Mayor.The Mayor denied that he had told Miss Pearl Gleason of the library that if Dockweiler had removed Miss Jones for cause and said nothing about it, it would have been all right. He was asked if he had told a man named O'Brien that he intended to kick out the whole outfit, Miss Jones among them.He said he thought he might have said something like that.After the Mayor's sudden exit, the hearing came to an abrupt close.It was suggested that the lawyers get together and arrange some sort of plan for procedure. Mr. Harris positively refused to have any dealings whatever with Oscar Lawler.The hearing will go on again tonight in the old rooms of the Young Men's Republican League, at which time
Councilman Smith promised that Miss
Jones shall have a chance to be heard.Free Excursion

VERDICT AGAINST RAILROAD AT SANTA BARBARA.

Jury Decides That Frank W. Johnson is Entitled to Eight Thousand Dollars for Death of His Wife Five Years Ago—Singular Ground on Which Defendant May Appeal.

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 31.—The jury in the case of Frank W. Johnson and children against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, for damages for the death of Mrs. Johnson in 1901 in a runaway caused by a work train on the Coast Line viaduct, frightening Mrs. Johnson's horse on the highway below, tonight brought in a verdict for $8,000 damages.

The case went to the Supreme Court on appeal from the ruling on a demurrer holding that the complaint did not state a cause of action. The Supreme Court reversed the ruling and sent the case back for trial.

Another appeal will probably be taken from the judgment, it being held among other things that the wrong company has been sued, based on the question of which of several Southern Pacific Companies was operating the road.

GOES FAR TO BE HIS BRIDE.

Bessie Dibble is New Third Wife of Chicagoan.

Rich Manufacturer Poed as Bachelor Wooer.

Los Angeles Girl Worshipped Ground He Walked on.

A dispatch from Monmouth, Ill., to the Times, received last night, announces the marriage at Burlington, Iowa, of Miss Bessie Dibble, daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Dibble of No. 611 Towne avenue, Los Angeles, to Ralph Bertram Wilson of Chicago, president of the Shipping and Receipt Book Company. Mr. Wilson is 35 and has been a principal in two divorce suits. He is possessed of considerable means. His bride of yesterday is 23 years old and has been a favorite in the eyes of the younger sets in this city.

The bride's mother is the widow of Edward Dibble, who died three years ago after serving the Santa Fe Railroad with uncommon loyalty for many years as a locomotive engineer. As chief of the local division of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers he stood out bravely and intelligently and alone from the unjust strikes inaugurated by his fellow engineers against his employers. His independent common sense caused him to be assailed throughout this locality as a "scab," and as "Scab Dibble" he was long harassed in the union-controlled newspapers until his death, as the result of injuries received in a wreck, in March of 1902. Mr. Dibble was a Mason.

Something of the sturdy determination of the father must have been ingrained in the handsome daughter who yesterday became the bride of the wealthy Chicagoan—for, disregarding the fact that he did not obtain a divorce from his second wife until the 9th of this month, and consequently under the law of Illinois was not at liberty to marry again until a year hence, she traveled 300 miles alone to go his bride, and then fled with him into a neighboring State that the ceremony might be performed at once—the State of Iowa, where the law of interdictory decrees does not exist and it is legal for a divorced person to remarry five minutes after judgment has been entered.

MOTHER TELLS THE STORY.
At her Towne-avenue home last night Mrs. Dibble told the story of her daughter's courtship.

"Mr. Wilson," she said, "is a high-degree Mason; a Knight Templar and a Shriner. He deceived both Bessie and myself—yet I do believe they will be happy. Ostensibly as a single man, he courted my daughter a full year. Then he told her he had a wife, and asked her if she would marry him as soon as he got a divorce. She said she would. She kept her word. But she did not know he had already been divorced once and that she was to be his third wife."

This intelligence was contained in the Monmouth dispatch to the Times which came as a shock to Mrs. Dibble last night.

"Bessie met Mr. Wilson for the first time a year ago, when visiting Knights Templars, on their way home from convalesce at San Francisco, were being entertained in Los Angeles, were being to a reception given them at Masonic temple. He saw her, and she afterward told me—then and there she learned that he would have her for his wife if it took him ten years to get her."

"They were introduced, at his request, and before the evening was over she was as much in love with him as was he with her."

FIVE LETTERS A DAY.
"His mother and sister were here in Los Angeles with him. He came here to call on Bessie and brought them with him. They appeared very pleasant people. When he went away he had Bessie's promise, and my consent, to carry on a correspondence. No word had been said to us about his being a man with a wife."

"They did correspond, indeed, I have known Bessie to get as many as five letters from him in one day, often four. Then, last September, he came out to Los Angeles again, and at that time he told my daughter he had a divorce. She promised. He told me he would get the divorce on the ground of infidelity.

"It seemed to me very wrong for him to have deceived us about his wife, and I did my best to dissuade Bessie from the match. But it was useless. 'Mamma,' she said to me, 'I would marry him if he had had a dozen wives. I worship the ground he walks on. I will marry that man, no there is no use trying to talk me out of it. What could I do? I never doubted his love for her. I could not. When he was here in September he even came to our house and remained as our guest for a week. I want you to see me as I am,' he said; 'I want to show you I mean business. I have known Bessie to get letters from Mr. Wilson dated the middle of the night. I have known him frequently to telegraph when he thought her answers did not go forward fast enough.'

HE SENDS A CHECK.
"On the 8th day of this month Mr. Wilson got his divorce. We did not know it was from his second wife. He immediately sent Bessie a generous check and bade her come to him and they would be married at once. She left here last Saturday night, alone, and was met at Monmouth by Mr. Wilson and his mother. Monmouth is the old home of the Wilsons.

"This evening I got this brief telegram," and Mrs. Dibble showed a ten-word message announcing the wedding and signed "Bessie Wilson."

"They say," resumed the mother, "that Mr. Wilson is a millionaire. I am sure that the Chicago Board of Trade, belongs to all the clubs, and has a beautiful residence at No. 2323 Rhodes avenue, Chicago, where my daughter will be at home to her friends after February 1. Mr. Wilson's firm has offices in Chicago, New York, London, San Francisco and Los Angeles. He told me so."

"Bessie and her husband will come to Los Angeles early in May, when Mr. Wilson will be one of the thousands of Shriners who are to meet here. I am sure that girl will be happy."

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, after yesterday afternoon's wedding at Burlington, Iowa, returned to Monmouth, Ill., where they now are the guests of the groom's aunt, Mrs. J. S. Young.

LOVE LEG, LONG LEAP.
Burns, of Single Underpin, Out of Second-story Window of Chinese Cafe Into Jail.

When J. C. Burns arrived at the Receiving Hospital last night he suggested to Police Surgeon Freedman that in view of the fact that he was already minus one leg, he might as well remove the other rather than cause him the pain of making a careful examination to determine whether or not the remaining limb had been damaged.

The aforementioned surgeon did nothing of the kind in the way of amputation. Burns found his way into the "katie" and on the register a charge of disturbing the peace was inscribed opposite his name.

Despite the absence of his right leg, Burns made a sensational escape from a Chinese restaurant on North Los Angeles street last evening, alighting on a pile of bricks after a flying leap from a second-story window. According to Special Officer Holman, who arrested Burns and two companions, F. Callahan and Mike Marshall, the former was assisted in his flight from the cafe by the insistent demands of a Chinese employer of the place, and the door on the second floor being the nearest available exit, Burns consequently made his departure in mid-air.

A charge of disturbing the peace also was made against the remaining members of the party, and the trio were locked up.

In the hospital, Surgeon Freedman failed to find any more serious injuries than the largest and the oldest Episcopal churches in St. Louis. His resignation as pastor of St. Athanasius will take effect the 18th inst. and he will take effect the 18th inst. and he will take effect the 18th inst.

POSTOR ACCEPTS CALL.
Rev. S. P. Sherman, Jr., pastor of St. Athanasius Church, Curran avenue and Temple street, has accepted a call to the pastorate of St. John's Episcopal, one of the largest and the oldest Episcopal churches in St. Louis. His resignation as pastor of St. Athanasius will take effect the 18th inst. and he will take effect the 18th inst.

On Wednesday, December 20, last, the Times published exclusively what perhaps was the most startling news of the past few months in this city, affecting high financial circles. The statement, in brief, was to the effect that the officers of the California Development Company, an organization through whose efforts the great developments in what had heretofore been known as the Colorado Desert had been in progress for several years, were preparing what was likely to result in the most important of the corporation and controllers of that great corporation, accusing them of having wrongfully taken nearly a million dollars from the company. It was stated that the claims to be made in such a suit would approximate $500,000.

Yesterday the suit was forecasted was brought in the Superior Court of this county. The complaint is sworn to by W. J. Doran, and the attorneys for the plaintiffs are E. S. Ives, J. A. McFadden and former Judge J. S. Chapman. The title of the cause is the California Development Company versus the Imperial Land Company, the Delta Improvement Company, the Lake Cattle Company, George Chaffey, A. N. Chaffey, N. W. Stowell, A. H. Heber, S. W. Ferguson, C. R. Rockwood, H. W. Blaisdell and W. T. Hoffmann.

The prayer set out at the end of the complaint is for an accounting on the part of these corporations and individuals and for a restoration to the California Development Company of divers sums of money amounting in all to $500,000.

TALK OF COMPROMISE.
Since the publication by the Times of the important news of the probable bringing of this suit, there has been a great deal of gossip in high financial quarters as to the allegations made and as to the possible outcome of the contention and threatened litigation. It has been pretty generally surmised in certain quarters during the last ten days that a settlement out of court was not an impossible thing even in the probable outcome of the contention between those who are now a party to the suit in which the complaint has been filed, but contrary to general expectations the attorneys for the plaintiffs yesterday afternoon filed a complaint covering about one hundred and sixty typewritten pages in legal cap.

The complaint sets forth little that is new or different from that published in the Times. The general allegations are that the defendant corporations in the suit now pending and the defendant individuals in divers ways diverted from the California Development Company, through the subsidiary companies, into the pockets of the defendants named in the suit, various sums of money amounting to the total set forth.

This was done, it is alleged, by executing mortgages by which the defendants secured commissions on lands not sold at all, and in many divers and other evasive ways by which it is claimed this vast sum of money has been diverted from its proper owners, the stockholders of the California Development Company, into the pockets of those made defendants in the suit.

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS?
There is an interesting feature in the complaint as filed, which perhaps points to "what may be set up by some of the defendants in answering to this complaint. The said complaint sets forth very fully that the affairs of the California Development Company have been kept secreted from others at interest, so that not until June, 1905, had it been possible to discover these alleged acts of fraud.

The complaint is honeycombed with allegations of fraud, in which figures fairly dance around one another, which stand for sums of money of $10,000, $25,000, $38,600, $40,485.60, and at least one of $210,160.00.

It is also set forth that N. W. Stowell, through a certain transaction whose legality is questioned, abstracted from the California Development Company as much as $100,000.

It is claimed that the subsidiary companies were organized without any capital, that the Chaffey, who were made parties to the suit, at the time when they entered into relations with the California Development Company, were not worth to exceed $5,000.

THE OTHER SIDE.
Of course the other side of the story is still to be heard. An answer to the complaint will no doubt be filed today, and with such powerful legal lights as John S. Chapman and John D. Work arranged for the prosecution and the defense, and with men like Col. E. S. Randolph, president at this time of the California Development Company, on one side, and the Chaffey on the other, a battle royal in the courts is already in the air.

The Chaffey are well known in this community. They stand in financial, church and social circles in an exceedingly high position. Col. Randolph is one of the most prominent men in the affairs of the great Southwest. The fact that the Chaffey have never before been called in question, and the filing of such a complaint against them in a formal way may very well be regarded in the light of a big sensation. Some of the other defendants are but slightly known in this community, and some of them are only too well known for their own best interests.

N. W. Stowell's recent escape in leaving the wife who had been with him for a long time, a guest of his wife, has not been quite forgotten yet. Stowell is now on the other side of the Atlantic, having a fine time with the girl whom he married after obtaining a cruel divorce from his faithful wife.

FLOOD AND DARKNESS.

Water Main Bursts at Spring and Sixth Streets and Much Damage is Threatened.

The bursting of a water main at Spring and Sixth streets last night caused considerable confusion for a short time, and plunged a part of the city into total darkness.

The main, which is of the six-inch size, burst right over the new storm drain, and for a time it looked as though the work of weeks might go for nothing. As soon as the break was reported, however, employees of the water department hurried to the scene and within a very short time the flow of water had been stopped and the danger of serious damage averted.

The conduits of the Los Angeles Lighting Company were flooded, and for a short time certain parts of the city, including the Lankershim Hotel, were without electric lights. Beyond the flooding of the basement of the new building being erected on the southeast corner of Sixth and Spring streets and the caving in of a short stretch of the street, no damage was done.

BREAK COMES IN LONG SLEEP.

FLORENCE PARKER AWAKENS AFTER TWENTY DAYS.

Return of Arizona Girl to Consciousness is Considered Turning Point in Peculiar Case—She Recognizes and Converses With Her Anxious Relatives.

Miss Florence Parker has awakened! The young girl who for twenty days has remained in a state of comatose, evincing but little more interest in things physical and mental than one dead, can now converse with her relatives who have so anxiously hung over her bedside.

Florence Parker has been confined to the Sisters' Hospital in this city for the past nine days. Specialists of repute have worked over her constantly and with unceasing attention, but all of them have been baffled by the girl's strange case. There is still a cloud of mystery shrouding these twenty days of sleep.

The awakening came yesterday morning, and Col. L. C. Parker, the girl's father, a wealthy resident of Tucson, Ariz., has been given assurance that his daughter will recover her normal health.

It will require several weeks and possibly months of absolute quiet for the girl to get her health, but the interruption of her continued sleep is considered the turning point in the case.

Last summer Miss Parker went to her father's home in Arizona from Deer Lodge, Mont., apparently in good health. Shortly after her arrival in the Southwestern State, however, she began to display symptoms of ill health, and a growing nervousness created much anxiety among her intimate friends and relatives.

Twenty days ago the girl fell into a deep stupor. She was placed in a Tucson hospital and given the most careful attention, but all to no avail. As a last hope the young woman was taken aboard a train and brought to this city. At the Sisters' Hospital, where she was taken, a conference was held to determine the nature of her strange ailment.

Specialists in nervous diseases were summoned and everything known to medical skill has been done for the girl, but those interested in her case have been baffled at every turn.

On a few occasions since her arrival in Los Angeles, Miss Parker has shown the slightest tendency to awaken, but every movement of her eyelids has been received as an omen of good or disappointment. Not until yesterday did Miss Parker recover sufficiently to realize her surroundings and recognize her father, who has kept a ceaseless watch over her since the arrival of the party in this city.

PASSING OF MRS. MINOR.

Prominent Member of Immanuel Presbyterian Church Dies After Long Illness.

Mrs. Mary T. Minor died at her residence, No. 1133 Ingraham street, yesterday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock. Her death came peacefully after a protracted illness. She was the widow of Hon. Samuel Minor, a well-known attorney of Los Angeles, who died some years ago.

There was, perhaps, no woman in this city so well known in Presbyterian Church circles as Mrs. Minor. Her work for missions brought her prominently before the church. At the time of her death she was president of the Presbyterian Society in which office she had served for the past twenty years.

She was well known as the friend of those who are in need, and many, whom Mrs. Minor has helped, have lived to bless her name.

She was a member of Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Her pastor, Dr. Walker, describes her as one of the sweetest and most gentle characters among the women of the church.

Mrs. Minor came to Los Angeles in 1888, from Titusville, Pa., where her husband was for many years interested in the oil business.

The funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Immanuel Presbyterian Church.

"CLEAN OUT ANNAPOLIS."

Ex-Congressman Caldwell Expresses Clear-Cut Views on Hazing in Army or Naval Schools.

"You remember some years ago when a man died at West Point after a fist fight, the appropriation for the next year was nearly defeated in Congress," said Ex-Congressman Benjamin F. Caldwell last night. "I voted against it. I wanted to see the whole place cleaned out, and that's what should be done at Annapolis. The same thing may happen to the appropriation for the Naval Academy."

"Hazing is un-American. We don't want in the navy or army any man who consents to use his superior strength in order to make another man do things that are ungentlemanly or even worse. They are not the men to command."

Bishop Conaty has been confined to his home on Burlington avenue for the past few days by an attack of the grip. He is recovering, and will be able to resume his church duties within the present week.

SAY HE BOUGHT RUSSIAN BRIDE.

Cash Wins the Conquest for Elim Tschernikoff.

Weeping Bride Was Blushing Yotani Kolyz.

Girl Sold by Her Father, the Neighbors Awe.

Crying as though her heart were broken, a little Russian girl was forced into a marriage by her father, at the home on East Fourth street last Sunday.

Neighbors who were present at the wedding claim that the girl was practically bought by a well-to-do young Russian named Elim Tschernikoff (ask the family cat for the pronunciation.)

ELIM TSCHERNIKOFF.

A large number of Americans were present at the ceremony and saw the poor little bride, Yotani Kolyz, crying and weeping at her own wedding.

Unfortunately, however, for the melodramatic effect, the young gentleman with the cat name for name is not a bold, bad villain in appearance. He was greatly distressed at the reluctance of the bride.

All parties concerned in this bitter little drama are members of a quaint household of Russian immigrants who live at No. 140 East Fourth street. This wedding is the second tragic marriage that has occurred there within three months.

About three months ago another daughter was married. The night before the wedding a little baby belonging to one of the women of the household died. During the wedding ceremonies, its little corpse lay in a basket in an adjoining room. Following the wedding was the funeral

The much-debated question of the ownership of the Agricultural Park tract is before Judge York, in a suit brought by the Sixth District Agricultural Association against Wright and others, to settle the title.

The point at issue is very important and a hard fight is being made.

Mrs. Louise Waters sought to recover damages for injuries received from a baseball, while she was viewing a game. The court held that visitors take such an outside chance, and the plaintiff was non-suited.

Mr. Avedis Enfilian, who has his permanent location on second floor of Broadway Drapery & Furniture Co., 447 So. Broadway, has recently received some very expensive choice pieces in Persian rugs.

Since his agent secured those rugs the prices have advanced nearly one-third on account of the scarcity of these specimens, and the market is on the rise, for there are many collectors ready to buy.

Mr. Enfilian has decided to hold an auction sale in the Severance Building, 557 So. Main st., northwest corner 6th and Main, and after the auction he will sell at private sale in both stores. Low prices will prevail.

In 1884 some of the grantees, $5 in number, began an action against Niles, et al., in which Moore took part, to have the original deed set aside and declared void, and to have Moore make a new deed to the tract, declaring more explicitly the purpose of the trust.

While this action was pending, O. W. Childs, George Stone, and others conveyed the lands to W. J. Broderick, W. Ferguson and L. Mayberry, to be held by them in trust for all the purposes determined, and a conveyance was then made to the Sixth District Agricultural Association. This last action was the result of the recently organized District Agricultural Association intervening in the Broderick suit, in which judgment was rendered and the deed of conveyance ordered.

OLD ORDER CHANGED.

In 1886 a State law was passed making it permissible for organizations such as these district associations to convey themselves into corporations, and in January, 1887, the present defendants held a meeting on the strength of the certificate of incorporation, and elected a board of directors, and reached the conclusion that it would District Agricultural Association intervening in the Broderick suit, in which judgment was rendered and the deed of conveyance ordered.

Her right hip was fractured, her back was strained and otherwise she was badly shaken.

HAS PARESIS. Fred S. Delavan was yesterday ordered committed to the State Hospital at Patton, by Judge Trask, on the ground of insanity. He is a maker, and for two years past has been mentally failing. Now he suffers from paresis of ideas and cannot think logically. At times he cannot recognize his wife or children.

ORTEGA DIVORCE. Maude Ortega was granted a divorce from Charles Ortega by Judge Trask yesterday, on the ground of adultery. The parties were married at San Antonio in March, 1892, but after coming to reside at Santa Monica the husband gave his wife only $3 a week to keep house and maintain herself and three children—two being the husband's by a former marriage.

ARCHITECT'S FEE. A. L. Haley has filed a suit against T. E. Gibbon, to recover $600 alleged to be due as a balance on architectural plans and specifications during the past two years.

BUCK IS ARRAIGNED.

Slayer of Mrs. Canfield Would Give Only His Name and Did Not Ask for a Lawyer.

Sullen, morose and dull, Morris Buck was arraigned before Justice Chambers yesterday on the charge of murdering Mrs. C. A. Canfield. All that could be got out of him was his name. He had no lawyer and asked for none. His preliminary examination was set for Friday.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY FREDERICKS expressed himself as satisfied from the medical examination of the man, that the defendant is not insane. He is determined that no undue lapse of time shall be allowed in advance of the trial in the Superior Court.

Francis Murphy is to preach the funeral sermon at the last rites for Mrs. Canfield, which are to be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the family residence on Alvarado street, to which friends have been invited. The interment is to be private.

THE WALLACE-LINDSMITH COMPANY has incorporated for the manufacture of machinery. The capital stock is set at $100,000, of which $2000 has been subscribed, and the directors are Wallace Lindsmith, E. B. Allen and G. C. Martin, all of Los Angeles.

JIM MORLEY WINS SUIT.

Any one getting crippled at a baseball game will stand a poor chance of recovering damages. Mrs. Louise M. Waters tried it yesterday, but her claim for damages was swept out of court by Judge Bordwell on a non-suit.

On November 17, 1904, Mrs. Waters went to the Chutes with her friend, Mrs. Anna Hostetter. They occupied seats in the grand stand. During the game a ball, hot from the bat, sailed into the grand stand and hit Mrs. Waters a glancing blow on the right leg, and then struck her other lower limb, causing her to fall. She was laid up for six months, and that ever since she has limped in walking. She claimed $4500 as damages, and the case went to trial yesterday.

The plaintiff claimed that only a portion of the stand was protected by a railing. She sought to fix responsibility on the Los Angeles Baseball Association.

Manager Jim Morley listened to the testimony. When the plaintiff's case was in, counsel for the other side moved for a non-suit, on the ground of contributory negligence. Any one going to a game is supposed to take the chance of being struck by a stray ball. The non-suit was granted.

TABLES TURNED.

JANITOR GETS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Charity Johnson began suit for divorce against Dennis Johnson some time ago, alleging that her husband had been very unkind. The parties to the action are colored and Dennis is a janitor in the City Library. Mrs. Johnson claimed to have been married to her husband in 1888 at Del Monte, Mexico, and returned with him to Los Angeles in 1892.

Dennis filed a cross-complaint and told Judge Smith yesterday that when his wife left him it was because she was afraid of being arrested for bigamy. In 1883 she had married a man named Ben Wilkinson, and when she came to Los Angeles from Iowa, she was a widow.

Under this statement, which the woman did not go into court to deny, Judge Smith granted Dennis an annulment of his marriage.

RAILWAY WINS.

E. E. Brainerd is a carpenter and contractor who was trying to recover $10,000 from the Pacific Electric Railway Company for damages, but one of his own witnesses put him out of court. The plaintiff claimed that in May, 1904, he was in act of alighting from a car at Pasadena avenue and Avenue 32, when the car suddenly started and he was thrown to the ground and seriously injured. It appeared from the testimony of the witnesses that the car was being moved by a man named Brainerd, and that the latter alighted from the car while it was in motion. As that constituted contributory negligence, Judge Gibbs granted the motion for a non-suit.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

LOSEE'S CASE. J. B. Losee, the Long Beach trustee charged with grafting, was in Judge Smith's court yesterday to have his trial set. By agreement of counsel, March 20 was set as the date, and Le Compté Davis stated that it surely would take three days to try.

SYRIAN WOMAN FREE. Mrs. Nellie Davis, who wears an American name but is a native of Damascus, and who had three charges of grand larceny and burglary against her, was yesterday dismissed from custody by Judge Smith.

Oriental Rugs

Mr. Avedis Enfilian, who has his permanent location on second floor of Broadway Drapery & Furniture Co., 447 So. Broadway, has recently received some very expensive choice pieces in Persian rugs.

Since his agent secured those rugs the prices have advanced nearly one-third on account of the scarcity of these specimens, and the market is on the rise, for there are many collectors ready to buy.

Mr. Enfilian has decided to hold an auction sale in the Severance Building, 557 So. Main st., northwest corner 6th and Main, and after the auction he will sell at private sale in both stores. Low prices will prevail.

Little Miss June Gilpatrick, the leading "lady doll" in the "Toyshop."

at the week end is the informal tea, which Mrs. Randolph Miller of No. 649 West Adams street has to give on Sunday in honor of Theodore Wore, the distinguished San Francisco artist. Mr. Wore is a most interesting man, and his work well known in the North and East. His pictures of the Orient and of Spain have won much admiration from the critics for the delicacy of interpretation and strength of line.

Another handsome affair to be given is the luncheon for thirty with which Mrs. Nathaniel Myrick and Mrs. John D. Matti, two fascinating hostesses, are planning to give Saturday afternoon, the 10th inst., at the home of Mrs. Myrick, No. 667 West Twenty-eighth street.

Doublet one of the loveliest affairs of the week to come will be the St. Valentine luncheon to be given the 14th inst., by Mrs. Walter Newhall at the California Club, in honor of Mrs. Mary W. Longstreet, who has recently returned from San Francisco.

Mrs. Clark Entertains.

A number of prominent society women of Salt Lake City and Montana have been visitors here during the week, and in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCormick of Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Clark of No. 710 West Adams street entertained on Tuesday evening, opening their beautiful home to give a dinner party.

The round table was graced by a large fancy basket of silver and Bohemian glass filled with the radiance of Madame Chetney roses, in varying shades of pink, and maidenhair ferns. Place cards were adorned with sketches of roses. Crystal-shaded candles lighted the room, and besides the guests of honor, covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Harry d'Acheul, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knox and Mrs. Jack Adams of Salt Lake City.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Clark was hostess at a beautiful luncheon given for a number of visiting women who included Mrs. A. A. Gibson, Mrs. James Clark, Mr. Frank Knox and Mrs. Farnsworth, all of Salt Lake, and Mrs. Thomas Lavelle of Montana. Other guests were Mrs. Ezra T. Stinson, Mrs. Arthur Erby and Mrs. Jack Adams. Mrs. Henry Carleton Lee assisted her mother, who sat in a handsome gown of black lace over ecru and pale blue silk, and Mrs. Lee wore the round gown of pink silk.

The round table was a rare eye centerpiece, while lace doilies were used otherwise in the table scheme. Silver baskets and Bohemian glass furniture adorned the table, while in the center vases were massed in a beautiful silver bowl. At each place elaborate bouquets of the fragrant blossoms were placed, and place cards were adorned with sketches of violets.

Mrs. Clark is planning to entertain in the near future for these same delightful visitors.

Visit the Misses Ide.

Mrs. Charles R. Hadley of Wilshire Boulevard, accompanied by her two guests, the Misses I. M. Dodge and Louise Leszynsky, and also Mrs. Fred Maier, are in Santa Barbara visiting the Misses Anne and Marjory Ide at the Hotel Potter. The Misses Ide, who are the daughters of acting Governor Ide of the Philippines visited Mrs. Maier last week, and expect to remain several weeks in Santa Barbara. Miss Dodge and Miss Leszynsky will spend a month in Santa Barbara also, and later will come back to this city as Mrs. Hadley's guests.

For Mrs. Decker.

One of the most delightful affairs to be given this week for Mrs. Sarah P. Decker, national president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, will be the garden party and reception which the Cliff Dwellings Association has arranged for Saturday afternoon at the beautiful country residence of Mrs. Frank Ogilvy Wood, "Woodhurst," Alhambra. Mrs. Wood is regent of the society, and has been in California but short time, having purchased one of the handomest country places in Alhambra.

Mrs. Decker is a charter member of the Cliff Dwellings Association, and will speak on this occasion. A large number of prominent club women of the city have been invited to the affair, which promises to be one

Mrs. Rios, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chas. F. Lummis, Miss Tur Bese Lummis, Miss Bertha Lummis and others. The day had been spent in a tour of all the beaches, the visitors enjoying the trip greatly.

Grandalls in New Home.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Crandall, who were recently married, are settled in their pretty new bungalow home, No. 640 Prospect avenue, South Pasadena, and Mrs. Crandall will be at home to her friends on the first and third Thursdays in the month. Mrs. Crandall before her marriage was Miss Gertrude Hatch, a charming musician of the city.

Silver Shower.

Daughters of Christ Church, of which Mrs. Oliver P. Posey is the president, gave a silver shower yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church. Each person who attended contributed a piece of silver, a large collection having been acquired. A programme of music and readings was presented under the direction of Miss Edna Dickinson. Mrs. Posey, who is always energetic in an enterprise which she chooses to foster, acted as one of the hostesses, and was assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. L. Primmer, Mrs. Edgar Swift, Misses Clara Heinis, Louise Payne, Jessie and Ruth Macfarland and Edna Dickinson.

Clark Luncheon Postponed.

The luncheon which Mrs. E. P. Clark and the Misses Clark, of No. 9 St. James Park, were planning to give for Miss Ruth Foster today, has been postponed, owing to a death in the Foster family.

Westlake Five Hundred Club.

Mrs. George A. Ralphs, of No. 1050 Arapahoe street, entertained, Tuesday afternoon, most delightfully members of the Westlake Five Hundred Club. Potted palms and pink carnations were combined with graceful effect and score-cards were ornamented with sketches of pink roses. The first and second prizes were hand-painted cups and saucers, awarded to Mrs. William Morris and Mrs. W. O. Morton, and Mrs. A. E. Messerley received the consolation, a box of fancy writing paper. Guests were: Mmes. L. Otis Shaw, Ralph Hagan, W. O. Morton, Frank Bowles, William Morra, W. R. Ames, E. B. McCarthy and A. L. Young.

Mrs. Frank Huggins will entertain the club at her home, No. 580 Bonnie Brae street, on the 13th inst.

Luncheon for Eighty-five.

Mrs. Joanna M. Rodman and Miss Rodman were hostesses, yesterday afternoon, at a beautifully-appointed luncheon given in the new Ebell Clubhouse. The tables were arranged in the rooms above stairs. There the hangings and settings are all of red, consequently soft greenery was effectively garlanded and formed an attractive background for the handsomely-gowned women who acted as receiving party. Luncheon was served from small tables shining with brass vases filled with bright golden-hued flowers.

Eighty-five woman friends were entertained. Acting as hostesses, and assisting in receiving, were: Mmes. Wiloughby Rodman, Cliff Page, C. D. Vile, Arthur G. Wells, M. E. Evans, William T. Bishop, Wells Smith, Allen C. Balch, J. B. True, Joseph B. Banning, Carl Adam, Wesley Clark, Scott Helm, Charles Barrington, J. H. Bolam, and Mrs. Miss Banning. Miss Russell and Miss Minor.

Covers were laid for: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Neuer, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutchinson, Mrs. Frank Larned, Mrs. Orrella Hines, of Pasadena, Mrs. L. L. Ormsby, Mrs. Emma Rahm and Miss Louise Lacey. Mr. Russell is Guest.

W. W. Russell, department commander of the G.A.R., who is here on a tour of inspection from the north and ladies of the party, were guests

Dozens of strong adjectives, startling superlatives and "rich" phrases are being applied to nearly all residential subdivisions now being exploited—but do these high-sounding terms as a rule truthfully describe the properties?

Every statement concerning Oaklawn made in this advertisement can be substantiated to the last letter. Oaklawn "tells its own story"—no clever talk is required to convince you of its intrinsic value.

Only a few minutes from Pasadena and Los Angeles business centers—Huntington car service—just a step from some of the most notable mansions in Pasadena—nearly $100,000 worth of building improvements in progress.

Oaklawn is one of the most picturesque bits of Nature's work in the scenic Pasadenas—abounds in rustic glens, miniature ravines, great gnarled oaks, graceful fruit and pepper trees, handsome foliage and vines—all enclosed by a stately rustic and boulder fence. Public and private improvements enhance the effect of this charming rustic setting.

Every spot in Oaklawn is a "view point"—the entire subdivision overlooks the Raymond Hotel golf links, the San Gabriel Valley, and commands an extensive view of the towering Sierras.

Where can you secure property of this exclusive character for $15 per front foot and upwards? WHERE can you find a more promising investment proposition than a lot in Oaklawn? Does this talk "sound good" to you? Oaklawn can back it up. See Oaklawn today.

Prices $15 and up per front foot. Building restrictions $5000. Terms.

LADY ETHEL'S RASH CHOICE.

Fair Girl Risks Unhappiness to Wed Wealth.

Baron de Forest's First Marriage Proved a Failure.

But Gloomy Predictions Have Not Been Verified.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)
LONDON, Jan. 12.—When the Hon.
Evelyn Gertrude, daughter of the late Lord Gerard, married Baron Arnold de Forest in the spring of 1894, there were many who predicted that it would prove an unhappy match. The Baron was not popularly credited with the

BARONESS DE FOREST.

possession of those domestic virtues which are essential to the enjoyment of a life of conjugal bliss. He had been married before, but that marriage had been speedily proved a failure. In 1893, when only 22 years old, he had married the wealthy widow of Albert Menier of chocolate fame, and in less than a year
she had obtained a divorce from him.
She was devoted to horse racing—she owns one of the finest racing stables in France—and he, to yachting. He would not give up the sea for her and she declined to abandon the race track for him. Their diversity of tastes was one of the things which decided them to cut adrift from one another.
As the adopted son—and the reputed natural son—of the late Baron Hirsch, the ex-husband possessed a fortune estimated at $50,000,000. One matrimonial failure does not count for much in the matrimonial market against a man who can draw checks on a sum like that. It is little to be wondered at, considering how such things are viewed in high society, that the Hon. Ethel Gerard—or rather, her mother, Lady Gerard—decided that for the sake of the cash, the risk of a second failure was worth taking. But it is pleasant to be able to record that thus far there are no indications that the second marriage is going to prove a second failure. They appear to get along together first rate. Although Lady De Forest, who comes of a sporting family, was an enthusiastic horsewoman before her wedding she has since developed a great fondness for a "life on the ocean wave" and accompanies her husband on most of his trips on his palatial thousand-ton steam yacht. In the latest photograph of her, which is here reproduced, she is shown wearing the famous rope of pearls valued at $500,- 000, which was only one of her husband's princely wedding gifts. Her mother could not afford to give her anything approaching the pearls in value, but she has bequeathed to her daughter much of the beauty that once made her famous.

On the death of Baron Hirsch, De Forest was created a hereditary Baron of the Austrian empire by the Emperor Francis Joseph, and by the late Queen Victoria's royal license he is permitted to use the same title in the United Kingdom. He has extensive estates in Austria, rents an estate in England from Lord Northbrook, and is numbered among the friends of the King.
It was reported some time ago that he intended to emulate Jacques Lebaudy and found a kingdom of his own in the Sahara. That Baron De Forest has denied. He has no intention of squan-dering his money on that sort of folly.

SISTERS' NEW SCHOOL.

Catholic Order Which Works Among Italians Will Occupy Building on Alpine Street Today.

Today the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart will move their Italian school into the handsome new building at the northeast corner of Alpine and Catalina streets.
The dedication will take place within ten days. Bishop Conaty will officiate, and there will be a general reunion of the friends of the school and the work of the Italian sisterhood in this city.
The sisters have a school of 150 children, and they also conduct a day nursery with daily care for twenty children.

The new building is admirably suited to the needs of this work. It is a three story structure, and cost $12,000. It is 5500 feet, and was erected on all sides.
The basement, which extends well above the surface of the lot, is to be used for a children's playroom, storage rooms, etc. The first floor contains a reception room and office; room for the sisters, a children's playroom, storage room. The upper floor contains the class rooms.

many "good things"
that have headed Watts Park way since we put

Southern Pacific motor cars will stop at Watts Park station, right on the tract, where the Southern Pacific crosses the Pacific Electric, which runs through Watts Park.

DO YOU REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF THESE POINTS?

of the tract.

Second—Southern Pacific runs on Alameda street, the eastern boundary of the tract.

Third—Watts Park Station, "right on the tract," where these roads cross, will be depot for both the Pacific Electric and Southern

Big Land Distribution Today In Elks' Hall--Morning--Afternoon--Evening

Beginning at 10 o'clock this morning the most unique event in California's development will occur in ELKS' HALL, 231 S. Spring street, when OVER NINE THOUSAND ACRES OF RICH TULARE COUNTY LAND will be distributed

Under the Home Extension Plan to the representatives of the five hundred families who have jointly purchased these lands in a wholesale way at an average of only $19 per acre. The members will bid for the consecutive right of selecting their ten, twenty and forty-acre tracts and the proceeds of the bidding will be applied to the planting of shade trees along the roadways of the colony.

THE NEW TOWN OF ALPAUGH has been laid out in the center of the big tract, and a new railroad connecting with the Santa Fe main line will be built through the colony at once, with gasoline motor car service. Every business lot in the townsite has been sold, but some of the best residence lots are still open for application at almost acreage prices.

Today's event is the birth of a new town and a great community. It will surpass in its scope anything ever heard of on this coast.
The public is invited to all sessions. Any tracts or town lots untaken by members will be thrown open to homeseekers today at the meeting.

RIVER BED THEIR GRAVE.

Carload of Navels Dumped Into Bottoms.

Frosted Fruit from Riverside Comes Under Ban.

Stern Eye of Health Office
Lets None Pass.

A campaign, vigorous and continuous, is being urged against frosted oranges in the Los Angeles markets by the city health authorities. This has just resulted in the condemnation by Fruit Inspector Drummond of an entire carload of golden fruit from Riverside, consigned to the produce firm of Marx & Son.

In an average carload there have been fully twenty wagonloads of frosted oranges condemned within the past week.

The carload sent here from Riverside was discovered to be badly frostbitten and the loss will fall upon the shippers. The local firm had paid the freight on the car, $45. In order to save, if possible, the amount thus expended, men have been carefully sorting the carload of fruit as it is taken out to be hauled to the dump in the Los Angeles River bed; and it is possible enough sound fruit will be gleaned to cover the freight bill.

In an average carload there are 36
boxes of oranges, and at the present rate of $1.45 for medium-grade navels
this would mean a loss of $324.00.

Despite the close watch kept on the markets by the city inspectors, there have been considerable lots of frosted oranges taken up by wagons and peddled in the suburban sections.

These wagonloads are inspected wherever they are found by the city inspectors, and if they are condemned the wagon driver is given a receipt for them by the officer and is ordered to drive them to the city dump and unload them.

While the scrutinizing of oranges is the chief work of the inspectors at the present, they also have a busy time in the fumigation of pineapples, which come from Hawaii, on account of their being infested with the "mosaic" bug.

A parasite which is known here particularly in its attacks on citrus and other garden and greenhouse plants.

There is also a constant watch kept on the apples received in this market, and Inspector Drummond said yesterday that the apple market shows a better grade of fruit this season than ever before since he began his work.

Last year there were large consignments of apples found to be infested with the codling moth. This year there is but little trouble from this source.

Complaints are occasionally received of peddlers selling rotten bananas;
but the condition of a banana is so apparent that there is no excuse for customers purchasing decayed fruit of this sort if they use their eyes at all.

The banana market in Los Angeles is constantly extending, and from eight to eight carloads a week are now required to supply the demand.

"BRITISH MARK TWAIN."

The visit to this city of Jerome K. Jerome, sometimes called the "British Mark Twain," will afford an opportunity for comparisons between American and British humor. Like the Gulf Stream, the current of humor has hitherto run from the new country to the old. From Artemus Ward down to American fun-masters have journeyed to the land of Mr. Punch. The author of "Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow," and "Three Men in a Boat," will lecture here tonight. With him is Charles Fattell Loomis, the American humorist.

OCCIDENTAL'S HOPES SOLID.

STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN ENDS IN A LOVE FEAST.

Endowment of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars and Then Some Secured. Dr. Walker and Others Who Labored Succeed When Success Seems Barely Possible.

Occidental College has an endowment of $200,000, and Presbyterians of Los Angeles celebrated the financial victory with a love feast last night at Central Church.

Added thrills of joy came when the committee was given $25,000 additional to be applied to the salary fund of John Willis Baer, the new president. The salary of the president was fixed at $5000 a year, and the munificent gift relieved the college of all care connected with securing of the amount for the coming five years.

One of the most stupendous campaigns ever carried on for the endowment of a Southern California educational institution closed last night with the report of the committee, led by Dr. Hugh K. Walker.

Early in the campaign large amounts were pledged provided the remaining sum could be raised by the last day of January. For a month the struggle has been on to secure the last few thousands of dollars. The work seemed like an attempt to draw blood from stones, as apparently all the available money had been raised.

Working almost night and day the committeemen labored throughout Southern California. Every city and hamlet was visited. Every church was given an opportunity to help, and all responded loyally. As a result of the systematic canvass more than the desired amount was raised, and to the great joy of the men who have the work in charge, last night it was reported that $200,000 has been secured, making a generous bonus over the needed fund.

Dr. Walker, acting president Young, and other members of the endowment committee, as well as a large number of students of Occidental College attended the prayer service at Central Church last night in anticipation of a surprise. No one was prepared for the announcement that every dollar is in sight.

All of the money was raised from friends of the college living in Southern California. Immanuel Presbyterian Church gave the princely sum of $100,000, and with half the amount thus in sight the committee were encouraged to fight a good fight. Pasadena Presbyterian Church gave another boost to the rising fund by contributing a neat sum of $25,000. Alhambra church swung into line with the gift of $12,500, and Highland Park responded with $800. Other sums followed from private individuals and the pledges were clinched with solid securities.

Perhaps the hardest battle of the campaign has been fought during the past two weeks. For a time failure seemed imminent. Slowly, however, the fund swelled until but $200 remained to be raised. Gail B. Johnson was the friend in need. The trustees of the University of Southern California saw the opportunity and to Dr. Walker came a check for the amount from the private purse of the banker. Extra sums then rolled in and the victory was assured.

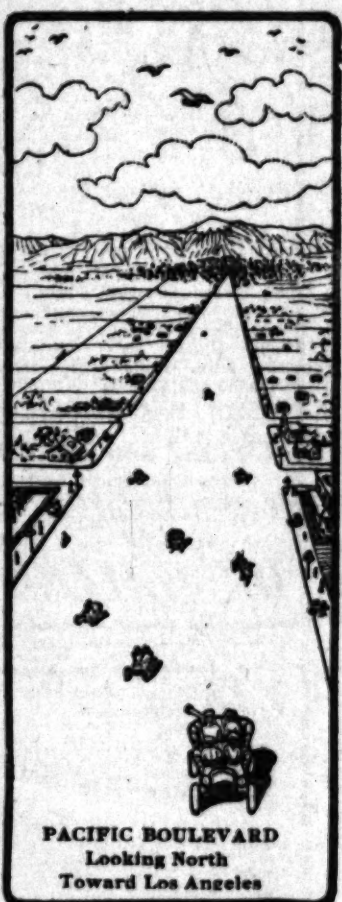

The amounts given by churches in Southern California not already mentioned: Third Church, Los Angeles, $1500; Boyle Heights, $1000; Bethany, $200; Knox, $1250; Second Church, Los Angeles, $1500; Bethesda, $1450; Redlands, $1000; Monrovia, $2200; Orange, $200; Santa Barbara, $200; Ventura, $200; Pomona, $500; Inglewood, $1100; Grandview, Los Angeles, $1000; First Church, Los Angeles, $500; San Diego, $275; Azusa, $150; Santa Monica, $1000; Glendale, $1000; Tropic, $1140; San Bernardino, $200; Upland, $100; First United Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles, $550; Santa Ana, $1000.

John Willis Baer, who has accepted the presidency of Occidental College, will not assume his duties until next May. He has formally resigned his position on the Board of Missions, but will continue his work with the board until the end of the college year. He will then come to Los Angeles, with his family, to reside.

FORMER MINISTER HURT.

V. C. Starkey, aged 75 years, was injured in alighting from a Pico Heights car at Hope and Pico streets last evening, while on his way to church. Starkey was formerly a minister in New York, but came to Los Angeles some time ago. He has been engaged in the real estate business in this city. He was removed to the Receiving Hospital. His face and hands were lacerated, and one arm was sprained.

TRACK SLEEPER IS MANGLED.

CASE PUZZLES THE PHYSICIANS IN SAN BERNARDINO.

After Being Severely Injured by Cuts and Bruises Man Falls Asleep Without Anesthetic on Operating Table at Hospital—End of Squabble Over Chaffey College of Ontario.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward Ray, now wandering for days over the desert, fell asleep on the Salt Lake track east of Barstow this morning. He was run over by the limited, which crushed a foot, and an arm, broke his collarbone and gashed him badly.

He was brought to town on the limited and taken to the hospital. When put on an operating table he fell asleep before the anesthetic was administered. The case is puzzling the physicians.

END OF COLLEGE SQUABBLE. L. S. Dyer, A. D. Moore, A. J. Wallace, J. E. Granger, and H. H. Morgan, this afternoon filed in the Superior Court their resignations as trustees of the Chaffey College of Agriculture of the Southern California University, together with an account covering the period from May 3, 1905, on which date they were elected to the U. S. C. all property belonging to Chaffey College.

Their resignations are a final step in settling the difficulties in Ontario colony where Chaffey College is located. In transferring the property to the U. S. C. they aroused the ire of the colony and much bitterness.

The regents of the U. S. C. immediately began to strip the college of its furnishings, hauling them to the University, and were enjoined. Recently Judge Oster decreed that the trustees should resign and, to succeed them, appointed George Chaffey and two others. It was directed that the U. S. C. should return to the college all property involved in the trust deed of 1897, and give the college ten years' scholarships for twenty years. In return for receiving property valued at $19,500. The accounts of the trustees of the property to be valued at $33,526.30; balance of trust fund on hand, $55,519.50; income since 1895, $25,553.57; expenses, $17,977.37.

BEAR VALLEY HOTEL SELLS.

"KNIGHTS" PLACE IS TO BE MUCH IMPROVED.

Property is Purchased by Group of Redlands Investors, Headed by W. E. Rabboth and Frank Morrison for a Stated Consideration of Nine Thousand Dollars.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Charles Henry this morning closed a deal for the sale of the Bear Valley Hotel property to a group of Redlands investors, headed by W. E. Rabboth and Frank Morrison, the stated consideration being $9,000. The property includes the hotel, twenty cabins and other outbuildings and eighty acres, all situated near Bear Valley Lake.

The purchasers contemplate the immediate expenditure of a large sum in improving the hotel and in transforming it into a summer resort. The present buildings will probably be entirely torn down and replaced by modern structures.

It was this deal which was pending several months ago, which brought Gus Knight, Jr., of this place, against Mrs. Henry, in an attempt to secure an interest in the title. He acquired an influence over the woman's husband while the latter was still suffering from the effects of a stroke, and secured a deed given him by Henry, who had decided, the court having entered a sweeping decree against Knight and Henry.

The Board of Supervisors will lend a helping hand to the project of the Redlands investors to establish a first class resort in Bear Valley, by building a free mountain road to that community. It is likely that this road will be under way before the summer opens.

"I have made this statement to free my conscience, knowing that I am not long for this world," was the sick woman's admission.

She further swore that the Patterson woman had confessed that she killed Lizzie Smith three years ago. Following Miss McFarlane's statement was a woman named Francisco Pacheco, who corroborated her. The examination will consume several days.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] RIVERSIDE, Jan. 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] East Side voters met to discuss the proposed purchase of the electric line for the election which is to take place April 3. John F. Tibbitt acted as chairman and Lester Corl as secretary. A committee of three was appointed to select two men for the East Side nominations for City Trustees. These are to be pledged to vote against all measures strictly corporate and to work for this section of Riverside.

Strong resolutions of protest were adopted against the possible purchase by the city of the Riverside power plant offered by Los Angeles capitalists. A committee of ten was appointed to direct the campaign and, after obtaining the necessary signatures, to present it to the City Trustees. Forty-three persons signed at the meeting.

A committee was also appointed to circulate a petition to the City Trustees to compel the Riverside and Arroyo Railroad to complete the side way line from Seventh street at the railroad crossing through the East Side and to a junction with the present line at the Victoria Clubhouse.

The meeting declared itself opposed to any extension of the franchise and favored forfeiture of it even as to the part already built unless the whole contract was carried out.

The meeting adjourned till next Wednesday.

A physician was called from Fullerton, but pronounced the man dead. Coroner Smith of Santa Ana was notified. The verdict of the jury being accidental death.

FOOD—NOT MEDICINE.

It all the treatments for consumption were put in book form it would make a pretty big library. But after all there has been little improvement over the old treatment of rest, fresh air, sunshine, plain, wholesome food and Scott's Emulsion. The latter supplies nourishment that cannot be secured in any other way, and after all, nourishment is what the consumptive needs first.

A gain in weight, however slight, is a long step toward improvement. If there is the least thing to build on Scott's Emulsion will enable the patient to make that gain. People have gained a pound in weight from a bottle of Scott's Emulsion—it's an exception when they don't.

We have seen Scott's Emulsion take hold of a patient and bring about a change for the better inside of a week. It always helps even the most stubborn cases.

How I Cure Weak Men

GIVE ME A MAN BROKEN DOWN FROM DISSIPATION, HARD WORK OR WORRY from any cause which has sapped his vitality. Let him follow my advice for three months and I will make him as vigorous in every respect as any man of his age.

I will not promise to make a Hercules of a man who was never intended by nature to be strong and sturdy. Even that man I can make better than he is, but the man who has been strong and who has lost his strength I can make as good as he ever was.

A man who is nervous, whose brain and body are weak, who sleeps badly, awakes more tired than when he went to bed, who is easily discouraged, inclined to brood over imaginary troubles, who has lost ambition and energy to tackle hard problems, lacks the animal electricity which the Dr. McLaughlin Electric Belt supplies.

The whole force of vitality in your body is dependent upon your animal electricity. When you lose that in any manner my Belt will replace it, and will cure you.

I have worn your belt for a little over two months now, and I am better than I have ever been before. That tired feeling has left me and my back is all right. My Crowder, Yardmaster, Salt Lake Railway.

Letters like that tell a story which means a good deal to a sufferer. They are a beacon light to the man who has become discouraged from useless doctoring. I get such letters every day.

My Belt has a wonderful influence on tired, weak nerves. It braces and invigorates and sets at work a great force of energy in a man.

I make the best electrical body appliances in the world, having devoted twenty years to perfecting it. I know my trade. My cures after everything else has failed are my best arguments.

Your Belt has done me a world of good. My rheumatism is all gone and I am feeling very good indeed. C. H. A. MENDY, Pasadena, Cal.

Give me a man who has pains in his back, a dull ache in his muscles or joints, "stiff" joints, pains in his shoulders, chest and back, stiffness in his hip, lumbago, rheumatism, or any ache or pain, and I will pour the oil of life into his aching body and drive out every sign of pain. No pain can exist where my Belt is worn.

Over 100,000 of these belts, I never tire of telling others what your Belt has done for me.

They come every day from everywhere. There is not a town or hamlet in the country which has not cured by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

It is as good for women as for men. Women while they sleep it causes no trouble. You feel the gentle, glowing heat from it constantly, but no stinging, no burning, as in old style belts.

Call today or send for my beautiful book, full of the things a man like to read if he wears my Belt. I will send it free. If you send this ad.

NOTICE ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

Owing to the favorable criticism and many inquiries received by us from the medical profession and others interested regarding our statement that the so-called weakness of man is not a weakness, but symptoms of internal disease, we have decided to publish a book containing the results of our researches into the causes of contracted disorders and early dissipation, and the loss of vitality, premature senility, etc., are invariably cured by procedures directed against correcting this inflammation, we wish to state to these many inquiries, in the columns of the present, that it takes approximately ten weeks of the most perfect methods, in the treatment of the prostate gland (neck of the bladder) to cure these disorders of the male. The treatment is entirely a local one, as no drugging of the stomach is necessary, and that the patient may treat himself at home under our directions. This of this treatment is not only gratifying, but immediate, and the patient is not discouraged by waiting too long for tangible results. We will cheerfully explain the treatment to any interested person on request.
